FIUME PROBLEM WILL BE SETTLED IN WAY THE COUNCIL DECIDES

Tittoni Tells Italian Cabinet Success of D'Annunzio's Scheme Would Raise Whole Crop of Troubles in Balkans and Central Europe

Rome, Sept. 26.—Thomas Tittoni, Foreign Minister of Italy, declared during a meeting of the Crown Council yesterday that the Peace Conference would not permit Italy to annex Fiume because such action would authorize the Czech-Slovaks to occupy Teschen; the Jugo-Slavs to move forces into Klagenfurt; the Greeks to claim Thrace and the Roumanians to annex Banat.

Paris, Sept. 26.—Premier Nitti and Foreign Minister Tittoni will ask for a vote of confidence in the Government in the Italian Chamber of Deputies, according to a dispatch to The Temps from Rome. The entire Ministry will attend the session of the Chamber, the dispatch adds.

Rome, Sept. 26.—(Havas).—A report that Giovanni Giolitti, former Premier, proposed to the Crown Council yesterday that Premier Nitti should dissolve Parliament on September 28 after having explained the situation, is denied by The Gazzetta Del Popolo, of Turin. The newspaper says:

"It is certain the Government will accept the proposition of Foreign Minister Tittoni that Captain d'Annunzio's forces be replaced by regular troops."

By Italians.
Rome, Sept. 26.—In a proclamation issued some days ago by Gabriele d'Annunzio to the people of Dalmatia, the post-commander of Fiume declared:

"The fate of the Adriatic must be decided only by Italians. Any other races would be intruders. We refuse to allow them to prevail."

A message from Fiume states that an American author, Henry Fox, has arrived there, and offered his services to d'Annunzio. It also is declared that an American naval officer volunteered to help d'Annunzio defend the city.

Query at Washington.
Washington, Sept. 26.—Secretary Daniels is asked in a resolution, by Senator Knox, Republican, Pennsylvania, adopted to-day by the Senate, to report whether American marines were landed at Trau, Dalmatia, to compel its evacuation by Italian forces as reported in press dispatches from Copenhagen and Paris.

MONEY TAKEN FROM TRAIN RECOVERED

Detectives' Success Is Sequel of Robbery in Quebec

Ottawa, Sept. 26.—The Railway Department was officially advised this morning by the detective service of the Canadian National Railways that all the money stolen in the recent train robbery near Lewis had been recovered. No details of the recovery accompanied the official notification.

Quebec, Sept. 26.—A large part of the $71,000 stolen by bandits last week from the Ocean Limited train on the Canadian National Railway at Harlow, Quebec, has been recovered, according to statements issued this morning by police officials. So far $61,000 of the stolen currency has been counted. Ten thousand dollars is yet missing. Two suitcases were open with dangers also were recovered, along with a revolver.

The police refused to state specifically where the money was found, but stated it was in the heart of Quebec City.

Bulgarian Leader Says Peace Terms Are Extremely Hard

Paris, Sept. 26.—The terms of peace offered Bulgaria are considered by the Bulgarian delegation as very rigorous, some of them completely unacceptable, according to a statement prepared by M. Theodoroff, head of the Bulgarian mission, prior to leaving Paris.

EXHAUSTION COMPELS HIM TO END TOUR; PRESIDENT WILSON

WILSON, EXHAUSTED, ABANDONS HIS TOUR

Stops Speaking For Treaty and Returns to Washington

Wichita, Kas., Sept. 26.—President Wilson, to-day cancelled the remainder of his peace treaty tour under orders from Admiral Grayson, his physician, and will return to Washington direct from Wichita. Admiral Grayson gave illness and physical exhaustion as the reason for this action.

Although Admiral Grayson said there was nothing critical about the President's condition, he also declared a nervous reaction affecting his digestive organs made suspension of his trip imperative.

Mr. Wilson was ill most of last night, and the decision to return at once to the capital was reached just before his train arrived in Wichita. The President himself wanted to continue his speaking programme, but Dr. Grayson would not permit it, so the President's address, which was to have been delivered at the Forum Building here, was cancelled.

The Presidential train did not pull into the station at Wichita, where a large crowd was waiting to welcome the President. Although he wanted at least to greet the people here, Dr. Grayson would not permit him to leave his private car.

A statement.
Secretary Tumulty issued the following statement:
"The President has exerted himself constantly and has been under such a strain during the last year, and has spent himself without reserve on this trip that it has brought on a nervous reaction in his digestive organs. Dr. Grayson, therefore, insists upon the cancellation of his remaining appointments and his immediate return to Washington, notwithstanding the President's earnest desire to complete his engagements."

Wichita, Kas., Sept. 26.—President Wilson's special train left Wichita at 11:30 p.m.

REPORTS ON STEEL STRIKE IN STATES STILL CLASH

Pittsburg, Sept. 26.—The strike situation in the Pittsburg district showed little change. Employers continue to report that men are returning to work daily and that production is on the increase. Union leaders declare that the walk-out is becoming more effective, with additional men joining the strike each day.

Shots Exchanged.
Pittsburg, Sept. 26.—State troopers and striking steel workers exchanged shots early to-day in the woods between Clairton and North Clairton, according to reports received here. No one was injured. The troopers arrested three men, all armed, and lodged them in the Clairton police station.

The path through the woods connecting the two towns has for several days been infested with men who take shots at workers going to the steel plants. The state troopers were patrolling the path when fired upon.

Three Stones.
Gary, Ind., Sept. 26.—Two men were arrested here to-day charged with throwing stones at an automobile.

CARTOONIST ROBBED OF BORROWED WATCH BY VANCOUVER THUGS

Vancouver, Sept. 26.—J. B. Fitzmaurice, staff cartoonist of The Vancouver Daily Province, was held up and robbed in Stanley Park last evening. While one robber held a gun pointed at his stomach, the second bandit took his watch, cigarette case and sixty cents in cash. The watch had been borrowed from a fellow member of the staff.

Lawless Leaders in Mexico, Except Diaz, Unite Under Villa

Washington, Sept. 26.—Information that all the revolutionary leaders in Mexico, with the exception of Felix Diaz, have accepted Francisco Villa as their chief and placed at his disposal their men, munitions and money, has reached Washington through a villa courier from the revolutionary headquarters in Durango.

UNRESTRAINED ENTHUSIASM GREETED PRINCE IN DUNCAN

Duncan, Sept. 26.—(By Times Special Representative).—Today was gala day in Duncan, when residents from all over the Cowichan District gathered at the Esquimalt & Nanaimo depot to welcome the Prince of Wales. Heralded by the Pathfinder circling overhead the Royal train, its engine decked with purple and white bunting, flags and the Royal Coat of Arms, drew in to the station promptly at half-past ten, to the accompaniment of cheers from thousands of throats and the waving of flags from 600 assembled school children.

As the Prince stepped from the train wearing a gray tweed lounge suit, and fedora hat, attended by Rear-Admiral Sir Lionel Halsey, his Chief of Staff; Major-General Leckie, Hon. Martin Burrell, Hon. William Sloan and members of his suite, he was greeted with loud cheers and the singing by school children of "God Bless the Prince of Wales." He was welcomed by a reception committee which included Thomas Pitt, Mayor of Duncan; Kenneth F. Duncan, M. P. for Cowichan; Reeve Mutter of North Cowichan; J. Maitland-Douglas, Government Agent, and Hugh Savage, President of the Duncan Board of Trade. The member for Cowichan then presented the following address:

"We, the residents of the Electoral District of Cowichan, being loyal and dutiful subjects of your Royal Father, H. M. King George V., bid you the heartiest welcome to the city of Duncan."

In the great struggle, now happily ended, in which your Royal Highness' devotion and service has been marked by us with pride and admiration, this district of Cowichan has good reason to claim that from its borders went forth to war a greater percentage of the population than was the case in any other district in Canada. Out of a total of some five thousand souls, including native Indians and Orientals, a known twelve hundred and a possible fifteen hundred voluntarily answered the call of duty—of this number at least one

MEN WISH TO HELP SHAPE CONDITIONS

Steel Strikers in States Want Voice, Declares Samuel Gompers

Washington, Sept. 26.—The right of the employees to have some voice in determining the conditions under which they work is the paramount issue in the strike of steel workers in the United States, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, told the Senate investigating committee to-day. Appearing as the second witness for labor, Mr. Gompers was first asked by Chairman Kenyon to define the issues in the controversy.

"The right to be heard is what the steel workers are asking above all else," Gompers said. "They ask the right to speak with their employers through their own representatives, to have some voice in determining the conditions under which they work. The right of the workers to associate has been denied—denied with all the power and influence of the wealth of the Steel Corporation—denied by brutal and unwarranted means."

Foreigners.
"It has been said that most of the men taking part in this strike are of foreign birth and not naturalized citizens. That may be and no doubt is true. The largest proportion of Steel Corporation employees are of foreign birth, but these men were brought here by the companies."

"There was for years a systematic effort to bring in these gangs from Europe. There was a systematic effort to eliminate Americans. They have a harvest to reap now."

Foster Not Called.
After hearing Mr. Gompers for more than three hours, the committee abandoned its plans to examine to-morrow William Z. Foster, secretary of the steel workers' committee, who has been attached in the House of Representatives as a radical and an I.W.W.

BRIEF STORM AT LABOR CONGRESS

Watters Not Given Chance to Speak on International Conference

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 26.—A storm of brief duration broke almost immediately upon the resumption of business by the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress here this forenoon.

Ex-President J. C. Watters attempted to explain his side of the controversy regarding representation on the International Labor Conference.

J. W. Wilkinson, chairman of the committee on officers' reports, took exception, declaring that the report embodying the statement regarding the conference had been carried.

No Motion.
Mr. Watters urged that he be allowed to explain his position, but no motion requesting reconsideration was forthcoming.

"It is an absolute crime that Mr. Watters is not heard," cried one delegate.

"Sit down, sit down," retorted a number of delegates.

Pandemonium followed and it was some time before President Moore could restore order.

To Committee.
Owing to the inclusion in the report of the British Columbia Federation of Labor to the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress of resolutions of the workers and principles of the One Big Union movement, the committee recommended reference to the committee on constitution and law. The recommendation was adopted.

VANCOUVER VETERANS WANT LANDLORDS TO REFORM WAYS

Vancouver, Sept. 26.—Vancouver landlords who, it is alleged, are refusing to rent houses to tenants with children, were roundly scored at a meeting of the Vancouver branch of the Great War Veterans' Association last night. By unanimous resolution the veterans asked the City Council and both the Dominion and Provincial Government to set machinery in motion that would make it unlawful for buildings to be erected or maintained for rental purposes that barred children.

Member after member told of being refused flats or houses because there were children in the family. He declared that the members of the organization were not worthy of their manhood if they allowed such conditions to continue in the city.

More Than 600,000 Men Will Be Affected; Government Will Have Aeroplanes Carry the Mails; Motorcars to Carry Needed Supplies

London, Sept. 26.—The conference between the railroad men's representatives and the Government for an attempted adjustment of differences on the wage question to-day resulted in failure and a strike has been ordered to take effect to-night at midnight. The strike will affect probably more than 600,000 men.

The Government has arranged to have the mails carried by aeroplane and to have large motorcars from the Government services made available for the conveyance of supplies to the large towns which will be seriously affected.

The locomotive engineers have announced that they would join in the strike, but it is said the Government has arranged to have many men who drove engines during the war make runs on the principal train service routes.

DECLARES BANKING SYSTEM IS WRONG

M. A. Macdonald Says in Vancouver Canada's System on False Basis

Vancouver, Sept. 26.—An attack on the banking system of Canada was made last night by M. A. Macdonald, K. C., M. P., at a meeting of the Ward Three Liberal Association here. Mr. Macdonald declared that the system now employed throughout the Dominion was on a wrong basis, and that it would not bear analysis. As a remedy he suggested nationalization of all banking institutions.

The value of the Canadian bills issued by any bank in Canada depended almost entirely, the Liberal member pointed out, on the wealth of the entire country. Why, then, he asked, should banks, which were privately owned and operated institutions, be delegated the right to issue currency, the revenue from which went to the bank?

Canada's Debt.
The Union Government came in for a measure of criticism from the Liberal member. The fact that Canada's war debt stood at "the unjustifiable sum of $2,000,000,000 was due to the criminal folly of the Dominion Government."

If, when conscription of man-power was enforced in Canada, similar action had been taken towards the wealth of the country, the Dominion's liabilities would be less than one-half what they were at the present time, he declared.

A resolution was unanimously passed requesting the Vancouver City and District Liberal Association to invite Mr. Lloyd George to visit Vancouver when he comes to Canada.

PRINCE WELCOMED AT NANAIMO TO-DAY

Coal City Extended Hearty Greeting to Heir-Apparent

The Prince of Wales was met at the Nanaimo station by Mayor McKenzie and the Reception Committee, also a special guard of returned soldiers under the command of Captain Leighton, all members of the guard wearing decorations received on active service.

The party proceeded by automobiles to the Court House, proceeding down Fitzwilliam Street, turning to the right along Wallace Street to the lower end of Commercial Street, thence up Commercial Street to Front Street. As the Royal visitor approached the Court House a chorus of about 500 children sang two verses of "God Bless the Prince of Wales." On arriving on the platform in front of the Court House, the Prince was presented by Mayor McKenzie with a short address, and after replying proceeded to confer distinctions won at the front on the next-of-kin of fallen Nanaimo soldiers, also on some soldiers who had not yet received their decorations. The Prince also received from the members of Bastion Chapter, I. O. O. F., a memento of his visit in the shape of a picture of the Bastion, and was presented by Miss Lorna McKenzie, daughter of the Mayor, with a specially prepared box of chocolates.

The Royal party returned to the station by the same route traversed on the way to the Court House grounds, and proceeded by train to Qualicum.

HUNGARY REPORTED

Geneva, Sept. 25.—via London, Sept. 25.—A movement is on foot in Hungary to restore the monarchy, with the former Archduke Joseph-Otto, eldest son of the former Emperor Charles, as King, according to a Budapest dispatch. The former Emperor would be named regent, the dispatch adds.

The ex-Archduke has not reached his seventh birthday, having been born November 20, 1912.

Former Emperor Charles and ex-Empress Zita were last reported as living quietly in a chateau at Prangins, Switzerland, near the shore of Lake Geneva.

ARMISTICE DAY BILL WAS GIVEN QUIETUS

Dominion's Thanksgiving Day Scheme Unchanged; Debate on Meighen Telegram.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—The House of Commons slaughtered I. E. Pedlow's bill to make the second Monday in November a permanent thanksgiving day so that it would be observed in commemoration of the blessings of peace as well as being a day of thankfulness for the gifts of Providence. On the third reading yesterday afternoon, Dr. Michael Steele, South Perth, moved a six months' hiatus, and the amendment was carried on a division of 78 to 73. While the division could be correctly described as a non-party one, the 78 votes which threw out the bill were cast by Unionists or cross-bench members. Sir George Foster, who was leading the House, ten other Unionists and all the Opposition members.

When the bill left committee, the other night it made November 11 (Armistice Day) a permanent thanksgiving day. Yesterday afternoon the House, on motion of A. R. McMaster, Brome, adopted an amendment changing this date to the second Monday in November.

Then came the six months' hiatus motion and the demise of the proposed measure.

That Code Telegram.

The debate on D. D. McKenzie's resolution calling for the appointment of a committee to inquire into the alleged sending of a code telegram signed by Hon. Arthur Meighen to Sir Robert Borden, relating to the placing of soldiers' votes in Manitoba, was continued. It was adjourned until Monday, when it will close with a division.

A. R. McMaster spoke for the Opposition when the House met. He maintained that there had been a wide-spread system of manipulation of soldiers' votes.

Defended Meighen.

Dr. Clark, Red Deer, from the cross benches, made a vigorous speech in defence of Mr. Meighen. He deprecated the raising of such issues and declared the Opposition had failed to establish its case from a legal standpoint.

Joseph Archambault followed with the long distance speech of the session. He spoke from 5 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon. Resuming at 8 o'clock, he kept going until after 11 o'clock.

He dealt almost entirely with the inquiry by a Royal Commission into charges made by Meighen in the House as to the taking of the soldiers' vote in Chambly-Vercheres. He said he had proved every charge he had made, but that the Government had restricted the scope of the inquiry.

Mr. Sutherland then asked if the Government had any information as to the reported intention of the Board of Commerce to fix the price of milk.

Sir George Foster replied that the Government had no special information. The Board of Commerce was conducting investigations under its own powers, and no doubt would later give some intimation as to what it intended to do.

Sir George suggested that the matter might be held over as communications were being exchanged with the Board of Commerce and there would then be full information available.

Mr. Sutherland consented to this course.

Senate.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—In the Senate yesterday afternoon the Government bill ratifying the peace treaty with Germany and the League of Nations was received from the Commons, read a first time and placed on the order paper for second reading on Tuesday next.

Hutterites.

Winnipeg, Sept. 25.—That more stringent measures be taken to prevent the admission of Hutterites into Manitoba; that all Hutterites already here be asked to take out naturalization papers on penalty of deportation; that all, irrespective of anything else, be asked to sign a statement to the effect that they are willing to abide by the laws of the country, including that regarding military service, and that those who refuse be deported at once, is the effect of a resolution passed by the Manitoba branch of the Great War Veterans' Association.

Insurance.

Winnipeg, Sept. 25.—The Winnipeg unit of the Army and Navy Veterans has adopted a resolution calling for provision by the Federal Government of insurance not exceeding $2,000 for dependents of pensioners who die while in receipt of pensions, and for discharge by the Manitoba Government of mortgages on the homes of returned soldiers where the assessed value does not exceed $4,000, and where the arrears are accumulating at a rate exceeding six per cent.

It was pointed out by officials of the organization that there are some men who mortgaged their homes before enlisting, and who are now paying interest at the rate of from ten to ten and a half per cent.

Manitoba Teachers.

Winnipeg, Sept. 25.—The Manitoba Government yesterday appointed a committee to inquire into and report upon the status and remuneration of the teaching profession and all matters relative thereto. The chairman will be A. E. Hill, of Brandon, who is a member of the Advisory Board.

Mr. Archambault referred to the findings of Judge McLennan as "a most extraordinary document of partisanship," and was called to order by Deputy Speaker Bolvin.

Mr. J. W. Beaudry, Frontenac, who followed Mr. Archambault, spoke until 12:45 a.m., when the debate was adjourned by J. A. Robb, chief Liberal Whip, and the House rose.

Motions.

Colonel J. A. Currie, North Simcoe, gave notice of the following motions:

"That in view of the indications of great oilfields existing in Northern Alberta and Saskatchewan, the governing leases to oil prospectors should be changed so as to encourage independent oil prospectors, and at the same time preserve a royalty on the oil found for the benefit of Canada."

"That the Civil Service Commission should be enlarged so as to give representation to returned soldiers on said Commission."

"That a general amnesty should be granted to soldiers undergoing terms of imprisonment for military offences committed during the war."

Investigation.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—During question time in the House yesterday afternoon, in reply to Mr. McPherson, the Minister of Public Works said an investigation was being made into the cause of the fire in the basement of the new Parliament Buildings.

Mr. Sutherland then asked if the Government had any information as to the reported intention of the Board of Commerce to fix the price of milk.

Sir George Foster replied that the Government had no special information. The Board of Commerce was conducting investigations under its own powers, and no doubt would later give some intimation as to what it intended to do.

VOTE ON SUNDAY IN LUXEMBOURG

People to Decide Whether Dynasty Shall Be Thrown Away

Paris, Sept. 25.—The first of the many plebiscites growing out of the war and the application of the principle of the right of nations to dispose of themselves will take place in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg next Sunday. The Luxembourgers are to be called upon, first to decide whether they desire to maintain or suppress the ruling dynasty, and second whether to conclude an economic arrangement with France and Belgium.

No provision is made in the plebiscite as to the future form of government of Luxembourg in the event the voters decide to suppress the dynasty, but it is understood that the Grand Duchy would remain an autonomous province under the immediate influence of the nation with which she chooses to enter into an economic compact.

The reigning Grand Duchess Marie Adelaide, succeeded her father, Grand Duke Wilhelm, in February, 1912, but abdicated and retired into Switzerland after the signing of the armistice between Germany and the Allies because her attitude at the declaration of and during the war was considered not sufficiently anti-German. Economically and politically, prior to the war, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg was a mere tributary to Germany, although nominally independent.

CHILDREN SOCIALIZED BY THE BOLSHEVIKI

London, Sept. 25.—According to the Russian Bolshevik paper Izvestia, the Bolshevik experiment of the socialization of children is now making headway.

The paper states that all children from the age of three are being forcibly taken from their parents and placed in state institutions, where they are educated along Bolshevik lines.

In order to protect the children, says the Izvestia, from the pernicious influence of parents with bourgeois sympathies, visits of these parents to their children are forbidden.

It is admitted that one of the first results of the experiment is that many children have died owing to lack of care and food.

FARMER TO STAND IN ASSINIBOIA RIDING

Carleton Place, Sept. 25.—Supporters of the new Farmers' Party to the number of 490 delegates and 240 registered voters crowded the skating rink here yesterday afternoon to nominate a candidate in the bye-election in the Federal constituency of Assiniboia to fill the seat vacated by J. G. Turfitt when he became a Senator.

Eighteen nominations were made, two of which were withdrawn, and balloting proceeded with sixteen in the field, thirteen of whom were farmers and three Presbyterian ministers.

Gould, of Manor, was chosen official candidate on the fifth ballot.

LENGTHY DEBATE IN FRENCH CHAMBER

Many Deputies Still Wish to Speak on German Treaty

Paris, Sept. 25.—The debate on the treaty with Germany in the Chamber of Deputies bids fair to run well into next month unless the Government forces a vote or asks the Chamber to cancel the privileges of those Deputies who have expressed their intention of speaking. This, Premier Clemenceau seems disinclined to do.

Speaking in the Chamber yesterday afternoon the Premier said the treaty was one of solidarity between the Allies, who, united in war, must be united in peace.

First of Kind.

The treaty contained many imperfections, but it was the culmination of the work of the coalition of liberation, the first of its sort in the history of the world, as the treaty was the dawn of a new era. He recalled the dark days of 1917, and declared to the opponents of the treaty that if a peace proposal had been received then, returning Alsace and Lorraine to France, no Frenchman would have demanded the insertion of any other clause, but would have accepted it.

The treaty brought back more than the lost provinces; it placed France on the highest pinnacle of fame and honor, and in a few years would bring prosperity.

Those who had spoken in the debate, the Premier pointed out, had criticized the details of the treaty, which must be considered, accepted or rejected as a whole, whether the instrument was helpful or harmful to France. The treaty was "the ensemble of possibilities," which was worth what the future ruling classes of France would make it.

Over Two Hours.

The Premier's effort was tremendous. He remained on the tribune for more than two hours. Many times he seemed to weaken, his voice becoming so low as to be almost inaudible beyond the first row of Government benches. But he waved off the advice from all quarters of the Chamber to "rest," and doggedly continued to display his indomitable spirit. He passed lightly over the criticism which had been prominent in the debate, that the French language is not the official language to the treaty, saying:

"It is not my fault if the English language is spoken by nearly two-thirds of the civilized world."

M. Clemenceau warned the Chamber that if it should refuse to ratify the treaty it would make it an instrument of death to France, while if the Chamber should ratify the instrument France would become imbued with its spirit, which would mean the life and resurrection of the country.

On Birthdays.

Paris, Sept. 25.—Premier Clemenceau's remarkable address in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, in which he asked for the ratification of the treaty of peace with Germany, was made on his seventy-eighth birthday.

If there was an impression that his words on the previous day during his colloquy with M. Barthou were a slight on the United States, he spoke of the "admirable impetuosity" with which the United States had flung men into the battlefields, and this showed that no slight was intended. Applause rang through the Chamber when M. Clemenceau said:

"Would you know my complete thoughts? Should there be no written treaty I would count on the United States all the same. I can say we are firmly counting on the adoption of the treaty over there."

I have seen young Americans at the front," he continued, "and no one of them, whether his origin was German, Italian or Pole, wavered in the night. When asked why they were there, they replied: 'For liberty.'"

The Premier recalled how at one crisis the Allies had to decide whether to defend Calais or Paris.

"A few days later," he continued, "Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain asked me what I had decided. I replied: 'France made Paris; Paris made France. I would burn Paris to save France.'"

Clemenceau's Views.

Paris, Sept. 25.—An interesting abstract of Premier Clemenceau's private views concerning the peace treaty and of things in general, as given to Senator Monroev in a few days ago, was published in L'Eclair yesterday. After declaring that he never had doubted that Marshal Foch and the Allied troops would bring victory, M. Clemenceau said:

"Glorious peace! We should have desired it no doubt, with greater advantage for our country. But let those who criticize the treaty and find the clauses insufficient reflect upon France's condition before the war ended. Let them recall that at certain hours the situation of France was very low; that France did not make war alone, and that despite our great love for our country, we could not dream of placing her in the position which she occupied at the height of her power after the great victories of the first empire."

A Change.

"Politically, my conceptions have been modified. Not that I have abandoned my democratic ideal, but my view of the mode of its application and realization has greatly changed."

"Formerly I had great distrust of the clergy."

"Many times regiments asked me to decorate their chaplains because of magnificent acts of bravery and devotion. These priests I decorated and congratulated with all my heart. A man who renders useful and benevolent service to his country must be considered a good servant of democracy regardless of religious and political opinion."

After the elections," concluded M. Clemenceau, "I will retire with the great reward that comes from the satisfaction of having done one's duty and with the friendship of my dear people, of whom I shall think always."

Newspaper Comment.

Paris, Sept. 25.—(Havas).—Commenting on Premier Clemenceau's speech in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday afternoon, the newspapers here generally remark that the address was a clear presentation of the situation, full of good sense and capable of giving the French confidence in the destinies of France, inducing them to place the public welfare above all in order to gain the maximum benefits of the treaty.

Several newspapers note that M. Clemenceau gave an impression of extreme fatigue and spoke in poor form from an oratorical point of view. Others observe that the question raised Wednesday by M. Barthou, who said that the position of France might be dangerous if the United States should not ratify the treaty, was not solved by the Premier's address.

CO-OPERATIVE STORE IN VERNON SOON

Vernon, Sept. 25.—The Vernon branch of the Great War Veterans Association, working in conjunction with a number of local farmers, has decided to launch a co-operative store business here with the ultimate purpose of extending the business to a chain of similar stores at various points in the Okanagan Valley.

The Veterans have decided to issue shares at $10 each and to organize under the Co-operative Societies Act.

STILL FACES CHARGES.

Dublin, Sept. 25.—Patrick O'Keefe, Sinn Féin member of Parliament for the Northern division of Cork, was acquitted yesterday after a trial by court-martial on the charge of unlawfully having arms in his possession. He was arrested September 17 during the series of raids and searches for arms and weapons carried out by the authorities.

On other charges of sedition, advocacy of public armed volunteers and ostracism of the police, O'Keefe pleaded not guilty and refused to recognize the validity of the court. The court-martial thereupon reserved judgment.

STORE WAS BOMBED

Spokane, Sept. 25.—That a bomb which exploded in the business district here last night, shattering numerous windows, was planted by enemies of Mark Soss, a pawnbroker, near whose store it was thrown, was the theory of the police to-day.

The position of the bomb, it was declared, was such as to preclude the belief that robbery was the motive. Several large windows in the Old National Building nearby were broken.

No additional arrests in connection with the explosion have been made. The three men arrested in a nearby hotel last night are being held.

DUNCAN TAX SALE VERY SMALL EVENT

Only Two Lots Sold; Nurse For Schools in Duncan

Duncan, Sept. 25.—At the tax sale for the city of Duncan only two lots were offered, one on Buena Vista Heights being bought by Mr. Skrimshire, and the other, adjoining T. Humphrey's property on the town-site, being bought by Herbert Helen. This probably constitutes the smallest tax sale list of any place in the Province.

The city clerk reports that over $29,000 has been paid in taxes and over $14,000 in electric light and water and miscellaneous rates during the current year—and the city's finances are in better shape than they have been since incorporation in 1912. All the store buildings are occupied and there are hardly any vacant houses of any sort.

School Nurse.
Wm. Dwyer, chairman of the Consolidated School Board, and W. L. Young, from the school nurse committee, interviewed the Duncan Hospital Board at its last meeting and arrangements will almost certainly be made by which the staff of the Duncan Hospital will supply a school nurse. The nearness of the hospital to the Duncan High and Public Schools makes this arrangement the simplest that could be made. Chechnus Hospital is supplying the school nurse for the northern part of the municipality.

At the District Nurses' Committee meeting this week seven applications for the post of district nurse were considered and the secretary was authorized to write to two of these, one of whom will probably be appointed.

Panthers Shot.
A number of panthers have been shot, chiefly in the neighborhood of Cowichan Lake, within the past fortnight.

BOARD OF COMMERCE HEARING IN MONTREAL

Montreal, Sept. 25.—Charges were made before the Board of Commerce here yesterday that restaurants were charging 16c a slice for apple pie; that false teeth manufactured at $5 a set were sold at 200 per cent. profit; that sugar was retailed at 13 cents a pound in many cases, and could not be secured at all unless other goods were purchased with it, and that bread was sold at excessive prices.

Dr. Styles, of the Baby Welfare League, urged that there should be some control of the price of milk. He also said that an investigation conducted by the League last summer in the poorer districts of Montreal showed that in 45 per cent. of the cases investigated, the milk being supplied was unfit for human consumption, that 27 per cent. of the babies were getting cows' milk, that 33 per cent. got condensed milk, and that 40 per cent. got tea or coffee.

The girl had been sent down to the brook to fetch a pail of water, but stood gazing at the flowing stream, apparently lost in thought.

"What's she waiting for?" said her mistress, who was watching.

"Dunno," wearily replied hubby. "Praps she hasn't seen a palful she likes yet."

ONE BIG UNION WAS CONDEMNED

Dominion Trades Congress Will Not Discuss Movement Again

Hamilton, Sept. 25.—The One Big Union movement received a decided setback at last evening's session of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress here when the delegates endorsed the report of the Executive Council, which denounced the movement. For two hours members expressed their sentiments for and against the idea, but when the question was voted on there was only one voice declaring support of the One Big Union. Following this action a motion was carried to the effect that the One Big Union should never again be discussed in the conference.

Councils.
That advocacy of the establishment of workmen's and soldiers' councils in Canada was embodied in the rough draft of a reconstruction programme submitted by Vice-President David Rees, Vancouver, at a meeting early last winter of the Executive Council of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, came to light at the afternoon session of the convention.

A Declaration.
The whole matter dates back to the last Congress at Quebec, when the Executive Council was instructed to prepare a declaration of principles for the guidance of the trades unionists throughout the country. In its report, submitted to the Congress yesterday, the Executive Council states that much time was spent in an endeavor to comply with this instruction.

"Secretary Draper," the report said, "being away in England at the time, was unable to take part in the meeting, and the opinion of the members of the Executive was equally divided as to the language which should be used and some of the principles which should be incorporated in a declaration of this kind. The Executive then adjourned its meeting without reaching an agreement on this subject, and no further steps have been taken in the matter."

Vice-President Rees told the assembly that a hurried draft of a reconstruction programme prepared by him on Vancouver Island had been presented by him at the Executive Council meeting, but was unacceptable to President Moore, who termed it "too poetic."

Eat and Get Thin

This is turning an old phrase face about, but modern methods of reducing fat have made this revision possible.

If you are overfat and also averse to physical exertion; if you are likewise fond of the table and still want to reduce your excess flesh several pounds, do this: Go to your druggist (or write the Marmola Co., 564 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.), and give him (or send them) one dollar. For this modest amount of money the druggist will put you in the way of satisfying your ambition for a nice, trim, slim figure. He will hand you a large case of Marmola Prescription Tablets (compounded in accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription); one of which you must take after each meal at bedtime until you begin to lose your fat at the rate of two, three or four pounds a week. Then continue the treatment until your weight is what you desire. Marmola Prescription Tablets are not only harmless but really beneficial to the general health. You don't need starvation diet or weakening exercises. Just so on eating what you like, leave exercising to the athletes, but take your little tablet faithfully and without a doubt that flabby flesh will quickly take unto itself wings, leaving behind it your natural self, neatly clothed in firm flesh and trim muscles.

RUSSIAN DEPORTED.

Vancouver, Sept. 25.—In the case of two Russians concluded yesterday before the special Immigration Board sitting here, the Government was successful in one and unsuccessful in the other. HIGHER PAY GIVEN.

New York, Sept. 25.—Increases in the pay of policemen, firemen and all civil service employees of the city of New York, amounting to about $10,000,000 annually, were agreed upon late yesterday by the finance and budget committee of the Board of Estimates.

COULD HARDLY BEND OVER TO PICK UP ANYTHING, HE SAYS

Feels Like He Has New Lease on Life Since Tanlac Ended Trouble

"Nearly every day for two years before I took Tanlac I had severe, splitting headaches that would almost drive me frantic," was the statement made to the Tanlac representative the other day by L. Angel, of Vancouver, B. C., who is engaged in business at 83 Cordova, West, Vancouver.

"Some days I was hardly able to stoop over and pick up anything, and my head felt like someone was pounding on it with a hammer. I never knew what a good night's rest was, and if I got a few hours' sleep it didn't refresh me the least bit. My nerves were in a bad condition, and the least little sound or noise would make me jump like I had been hit with a stick. My stomach stayed out of order all the time, and I had about a good meal for every time I would sit down to the table I would begin to think about what was coming after I got through eating. After every meal I would feel sick on my stomach, and cause gas to form so bad that I would almost smother. I would belch up gas and with it hot stime would come up and cause heartburn and make me have such dizzy spells that my heart would palpitate, and I would have to sit down to keep from falling over in my tracks. My back ached all over, and I felt that other parts of my body were becoming affected. My appetite left me, then my stomach got worse and worse, and finally the very sight of food would make me vomit. I tried every kind of medicine I knew of, but nothing would do me any good."

"One day a friend told me about this Tanlac, and how much it had helped him—so I went and got a bottle to see what it would do for me. That was the best thing, I believe, I ever did, for it has certainly overcome all my troubles, and I feel well as I ever did in my life. I can eat anything I want now, and I never have a sign of any stomach trouble. I never have an ache or pain, and I simply have a new lease on life, for I'm free from headache, heartburn and backache. I'm sleeping fine every night and I get up of mornings feeling great."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas—Advt.

DRAYTON ADDRESSED LABOR CONVENTION

Urged Delegates at Gathering at Hamilton to Support Loan

Hamilton, Sept. 25.—Urging cooperation in the Victory Loan campaign, Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, addressed the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress here yesterday.

"There has been a war," he declared, "and there is a mess to be cleaned up. There are our commitments to soldiers, which must be fulfilled to the last letter. There is not a man in this audience who does not want to see everything possible done for the returned soldiers."

A working capital would have to be provided for the country to see that the wheels of industry did not cease to turn.

Candidates.
Speaking on behalf of the Ontario Labor Party, S. J. Halford, Hamilton, advocated the election of labor candidates to both Parliament and the Provincial Legislatures.

"We have got to take a stand in the political field," he declared. "It has been shown to us that we will not get anything until we send our own representatives to Parliament."

Mr. Halford was supported by James Simpson, Toronto, who said that the trades unionists of the country needed representatives directly to voice their aims and aspirations.

Next Convention.
Officials in Moose Jaw and delegates from that city to the Trades Congress are making every effort to have next year's convention held there. Telegrams from the Moose Jaw City Council and the trades unions were received yesterday urging the selection of Moose Jaw, London and Sydney delegates also are anxious that the next meeting should be held in their cities.

The teacher had explained to the class that all bodies through which we can see are pellucid or transparent.

"Now," he said to Tommy Todd, "can you mention any transparent object?"

Tommy, beaming with delight, replied: "Yes, sir. A whohole and a drain-pipe."

NO AMOUNT YET STATED FOR BONUS

Head of Vancouver G.W.V.A. Says Body Wants "Necessary" Amount

Vancouver, Sept. 25.—"The Great War Veterans' Association is not out for a $2,000 or a $2,500 bonus. No specific amount has been stated. It may mean that we want more. We want the necessary amount properly to re-establish all the returned men. We have so far been on same level ground, and when the proper time comes and the matter has been investigated we will be sure of the support of the public. We have not asked for any set amount, but we will ask for something, perhaps $10,000."

Such were the words of Captain Whitaker, who occupied the chair at the semi-monthly meeting of the Vancouver branch of the Great War Veterans' Association last night. The statement arose over interruptions which continually came when the discussion of the questionnaire which is being circulated came up. Considerable misapprehension apparently existed among the members as to the actual import of certain questions on the paper, among them being the remark that a cash payment would not be accepted as an answer.

The questionnaire is being circulated so that proper steps can be taken by the committee of the Commons recently appointed to investigate the status of returned men.

BRITAIN'S RAILWAY TROUBLES.

Only by the intervention of unexpected developments during the next few hours will it be possible for Great Britain to escape a national railway strike. Continuous conferences between the officials of the National Union of Railwaymen and the members of the Cabinet for the last two days have failed to remove a new deadlock. On that account a strike has been ordered to take effect to-night at midnight.

It had been generally supposed by the people of Great Britain that the more or less tolerant attitude demonstrated by the Trades Union Congress at Glasgow recently would reduce the danger of industrial chaos by bringing a more conciliatory policy to bear upon trade disputes. Much had been expected of the conference, although the exponent of "direct action" had hoped to sway the moderate labor representative from the constitutional course. Because of the apparent desire on the part of the workers as a whole to settle down to the important tasks of a new era the shock of a threatened railway strike is all the more acute.

The present dispute hinges on the question of the standardization of wages among similarly graded workers employed by the various railway companies. It is declared by the officials of the National Union of Railwaymen that the men's leaders were led to believe that the standardization would have an upward tendency, and although the principle was secured in a settlement regarding locomotive men, prolonged negotiations affecting the other grades apparently have resulted in proposals being definitely tabled which would reverse this policy when the existing war-wage agreement ended in December. It is asserted by J. H. Thomas, M. P., of the N. U. R., that in some cases the reduction would amount to as much as three dollars weekly.

If the officials of the Union are speaking accurately—and the railwaymen's executive committee is composed for the most part of men of the highest integrity—it is the same old story all over again; a promise has been broken and the suspicion which seems destined to prevent amity between capital and labor is intensified. The employer of to-day, whether he be the owner of a small plant or a great railway corporation, must keep faith with his men and if he does that he has a right to expect straight dealings from his employees. It suits both ways. By virtue of his organization the worker no longer may send up his wail of oppression without good cause. He has his remedy at all times; the benefit and efficacy of the strike weapon, however, will remain a debatable point until the dawn of an industrial Utopia. Nevertheless, Trades Unionism balances the money bag.

A general railway strike in Britain would mean an almost instantaneous dislocation of every branch of industry. It is doubtful, moreover, if the trouble can be confined to the railways. If the members of the National Union "down tools" at midnight, action on the part of the transport workers and miners may probably follow. Robert Smillie would be in his element if he discovered a way to use the railwaymen to assist him to give an actual demonstration of his policy of "direct action." With the "Triple Alliance" idle, therefore, the situation would be pregnant with serious possibilities, for it may be taken for granted that every atom of advantage that can be extracted from the present unfortunate state of affairs will be used by the advocates of nationalization.

The national strike of 1911 cannot be compared with the threatened tie-up to-day. Circumstances were entirely different, although the enormous curtailment of train services for two days on that occasion threw the whole country into an unparalleled state of industrial chaos. However, if there must be a strike now it will be the bounden duty of the Government to end it promptly, even if it means the nationalization of the transportation systems and the mining industry. At all events with an adverse trade balance already placing Britain at a grave industrial disadvantage it is obvious that no effort will be spared to prevent a condition that might easily result in much more serious consequences than might follow the nation's entry into the coal and railway business on its own account.

A BITTER STRUGGLE.

The persistent refusal of the heads of the big steel companies in the United States to confer with the leaders of the strike reflects their determination to oppose the demands made upon them to the utmost and, therefore, foreshadows a long, bitter struggle unless Congressional pressure shall force a settlement.

In one respect the operators never were better prepared for such a development. They have accumulated enormous profits during the last five years and can stand a prolonged shut-down much better than their employees. But labor troubles of this kind are matters of grave concern to more than the two sides immediately affected. They involve inconvenience, loss and often hardship for the general public, and it is this aspect which in the end compels the Government to take such steps as to bring them to an end.

We pointed out the other day that paralysis of the American steel industry seriously handicaps the export trade of the country which had reached unparalleled proportions, due very largely to the inroads of American steel in the foreign markets. This product was finding its way in increasing volume to not only markets controlled formerly by the British producers, but to the factory centres of Great Britain. The quantity of American steel shipped abroad rose to 544,580 tons in June against a monthly average of 250,000 tons before the war.

Prices of steel products in England are much higher than they are in the United States, for the first time in history. According to Sir Auckland Geddes, steel rails in the Old Country are $85 a ton and only $50 in the United States. Shipplates in England are $87.50 a ton and in the United States $70, while British pig iron brings $40 per ton against $30 per ton for pig iron in the republic. American rails have been marketed in England at $7 per ton below the British price, and some products from Pennsylvania have been sold in England below the cost of production there.

While the restoration of Britain's industrial equilibrium in time would effect a readjustment of these conditions in any case, the big fight now in progress between the American steel operators and their employees is bound to bring about that result almost immediately, especially if it should extend to the coal mines and the railroads, a not unlikely possibility. If British labor conditions could develop more steadiness at this time the British steel industry would have a fine opportunity of regaining much of its former standing in its home and foreign markets.

SQUARE DEAL FOR RESERVISTS.

The British reservists who left Canada to rejoin their units in Great Britain during the war should be placed upon the same footing as members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force in respect of Canada's programme of soldiers' rehabilitation. If the provision made for them by the British Government is not as complete as that made for members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force the Canadian Government should make up the difference. These reservists were citizens of Canada before the war and the survivors for the most part, have returned to this country and will make their homes here. Some of them, in fact, had resided in the Dominion for many years prior to the war. They certainly must be given the equivalent of whatever is done for those who joined the Canadian army.

WHAT OF THE DRYDOCK?

Vancouver members of the Federal Parliament are endeavoring to speed up the authorities at Ottawa in respect of the harbor improvements for the Terminal City. Aiding the city's representatives telegrams have been sent to the national capital from the various organizations interested. All of which reminds us that there is still an absence of any tangible sign that the $500,000 voted for the drydock at Lang Cove is likely to be applied in the immediate future. We understand that engineers already have taken soundings. But this was some time ago, and we should imagine that every inch of the bottom of the intended location is an open book to the Federal Public Works Department by this time. Victorians, of course, do not intend to permit the Lang Cove project to languish in the category of an election sprat. Dr. Tolmie and Mr. McIntosh did excellent work in bringing the cabinet to a decision to give effect to its own policy laid down several years ago. But the real work is yet to be started, and their task, therefore, remains uncompleted.

WOMEN LEAGUE WORKERS.

Apparently British women intend to see to it that adequate representation is obtained for their sex in the various bodies which will be associated with the League of Nations. The covenant provides that all positions connected with the League, including the Secretariat, shall be open to men and women.

At Caxton Hall in London resolutions were adopted urging the Government to assure to the womenfolk fair representation in the assembly of delegates, the international court of justice, and all other commissions to be set up by the League. Following the resolutions will be a list of suitable women candidates for such appointments.

This is as it should be. The woman foots the greatest bill for a war and is invariably called upon for unequal exactions more often than the mere male. Apart from these fundamental facts, however, the women of the Empire were the miracle workers of the war and during its weary days many Legislatures throughout the British Commonwealth showed their recognition of this by giving them equal suffrage.

There will be no warmer supporters of the League covenant than the women of the Allied countries, and it is easy to understand why they wish to do their part to prevent civilization from falling prey to the mistakes of international diplomacy in the future.

Cartoonist Fitzmaurice, of The Vancouver Province, was held up by a highwayman and robbed of his watch. The watch had been borrowed from a colleague on the staff of the newspaper. It is pleasing to observe that Mr. Fitzmaurice is sticking strictly to the traditions of the Fourth Estate. It would have been deplorable if that watch had belonged to him.

STATUS OF HOUSE MAIDS.

(The Public, New York.)

Not the least of the good things coming out of the conditions of house servants. The girls and women who went into munition factories and other war work are disinclined to return to the kitchen. In France, in England, as well as in the United States, the servant problem has become acute through lack of supply. Higher wages, even to doubling or to tripling, have had little effect, nor does the multiplication of servant privileges. Indeed, it is the very fact of being a servant that is creating all the trouble. The spirit of democracy has been taken seriously. Good wages they want and better hours and treatment generally. But first of all they want to be men and women. If any servant mistress wishes to know just what this means, let her imagine herself working in another woman's kitchen. Such a thought may seem fantastic to her. Possibly it is when she thinks of the somewhat undeveloped maids she has seen. Yet she must remember that one has aspirations far above the present ability to gratify, and to attain those aspirations one sometimes takes extreme means. Possibly the mistress in self-defence will have to aid the maid in becoming a human being, with the right to be addressed as Miss or Mrs. like other members of her sex.

STARVATION FORCED SURRENDER AT KUT

Garrison Fought Until Last Food Had Been Eaten, Then Capitulated to Turks

By Paul Edmunds, Lieut. R.F.A.

Enthusiasm is in the main an excellent thing. One does not get far without it. Nevertheless it may sometimes lead to quite unexpected situations. This was the case with six gunners of the 14th Hussars, who were on duty at the end of October 1915 en route for the Mesopotamian front.

Having in due course arrived at the ancient city of Basra—better known to readers of the "Arabian Nights" as Bussorah, the birthplace of Sinbad the Sailor—we reported and asked for orders. There were none. Nobody knew anything about us, not seemingly did anyone care what we came of us. The 6th Division was at this time approaching Baghdad and news of the capture of the city was hourly expected. We were all six of us in a fire-eating mood and exceedingly anxious to be "in it." Particularly were we desirous of reaching Baghdad in time to participate in the triumphal entry of General Townshend and his division—the division which had conquered the big area of that country that lay between the Persian Gulf and the city of the Caliph. Accordingly—since the authorities could, or would, do nothing for us—we, in our misguided enthusiasm, took the law into our own hands. Having persuaded a squadron of the 14th Hussars who were just going up the river to take us on their barge we embarked as passengers with them on the voyage up the Tigris. But alas for our hopes of entering Baghdad! At the Arab village of Aizemb, some distance above Kut, we met the army in full retreat, and although we did six months later enter the city of enchantment we entered it in a manner which none of us at that time anticipated.

Cause of Retreat.

The circumstances which led to the retreat were these:—General Townshend having arrived within striking distance of Baghdad decided that it would be unwise to attempt to take the town with the small forces at his disposal, for the division had been weakened by many months' continuous fighting and even if the city surrendered it would be impossible to maintain the long line of communications necessary. He therefore wired the Indian Government asking for two more divisions. But the Government was either in no mood or in no position to supply him with a number of additional troops. The Government wired back what must rank as the most reckless and unthinking order in all military history—"Carry On!" So we went on, and the 6th Division Townshend fought the battle of Ctesiphon—the bloodiest battle of the whole war with a casualty list of no less than fifty per cent. What is more he took the positions on the Tigris which gave him command of Baghdad. And then the blow fell. Two Turkish infantry divisions which had been waiting for us in such rapid time as no army but an army of Turks could have accomplished, arrived on the scene of action. There was only one thing left—to retreat.

So instead of joining a victorious army and marching in triumph into Baghdad we joined an army retreating hurriedly after a devastating battle. I have it on the authority of an officer who had previously been through the famous retreat from Mons that compared to the retreat after the battle of Ctesiphon it was a soft job. The men were in a terrible state of exhaustion in fact the Indians in many cases had to be forced along almost at the point of the bayonet. One of the reasons they failed to fall out knowing the fate they would undoubtedly have met with at the hands of wandering Arabs—and the sufferings of the ambulance wagons were indescribable.

At a place called Umm-et-Tabul we fought a rearguard action to drive 900 casualties and wounded men off our own ground. And it was here that we were saved from complete annihilation owing to a large force of Turks sent south to cut off our retreat along the Tigris.

Making a Stand.

Thanks to this piece of good fortune we arrived after six days marching and fighting at the town of Kut-el-Amara, and here Townshend decided to make a stand. One reason for his decision was, no doubt, the exhausted condition of his troops. Another, that if the retreat was continued further it would almost certainly have to be continued as far as Basra and thus the great stretch of country won so much cost by the plucky little 6th Division would have been lost. Moreover the position of Kut on a horseshoe bend of the Tigris made it a possible place to hold against superior numbers. So at Kut we stopped.

We reached there on December 2. The Cavalry Brigade and a battery of the R.F.A. went on down to Amara. The rest of us remained behind and dug trenches across the neck of the bend to form our front line. A couple of days later we were completely invested and the siege had begun.

Up to the very end none of us had any doubt about our relief. That the British would fail to get through to us seemed unthinkable. And yet, had we known it, the only time relief came within measurable distance was on March 8 when General Aymer made his big attack—and how near the attack came to being successful we never afterwards from the Turks themselves. It appears from their story that the Dujailah Redoubt, which was the key to the position, was held that morning by nothing more formidable than an Arab battalion. They thought the game was up. But Aymer to their surprise instead of pushing home his attack proceeded to bombard their position, and under cover of the bombardment they were able to bring up reinforcements which felled the British attack when at last it was made. Aymer, having failed, was then obliged to withdraw his troops owing to lack of water and the opportunity was lost never to be regained.

Another factor which contributed to the failure to relieve Kut was the wet weather. After rain the face of the Mesopotamian desert becomes a slippery clay on which transport animals cannot maintain their footing. Camels in particular are useless under such conditions as their feet slide apart until they split themselves and have to be shot. There were marauders, too, on either side of the Turkish positions which not only made flank operations impossible but shortened the Turkish line and enabled the Turks to hold their trenches strongly with the minimum of troops. In fact the force which fought so gallantly to relieve us had many difficulties to contend with. We did not realize it at the time but we have done since.

The Surrender.

On April 29, 1916, when every particle of food including that dropped by our aeroplanes had been consumed we surrendered. The siege had then lasted nearly five months, and was thus longer than either the siege of Plevna in the Russo-Turkish war or the siege of Ladysmith in the Boer war.

Although it was not like these two, successful, it nevertheless saved lower Mesopotamia for the British, and those of us who entered the siege have at least the consolation of knowing that we were beaten not by the Turks but by that more insidious enemy starvation.

hundred and fifty gave their lives in the great cause.

Your brief passage through the eastern portion of Cowichan will serve to show Your Royal Highness how richly nature has endowed this land and why the Indians named Cowichan—"Warmed by the sun." Its opportunities, its pleasant climate, its scenic beauties, delightful bays and waterways, lovely inland lakes, fir clad mountains, and its unrivalled attractions in sport of all kinds, have drawn to it a population of almost purely British stock, many of whom have served the Crown in many parts of our far-flung Empire. You will note evidence of the development of our vast timber resources and of our agricultural possibilities. Westward, from hill and valley, mineral wealth is being won. It is our hope and aim that this development may so increase that homes and livelihoods may be provided for thousands of those who, having risked all in the great war, may here find that coveted employment and rest they so well deserve.

In bidding Your Royal Highness God speed, we trust that your journey may be pleasant and that you will ever cherish a recollection of your visit to Duncan and Cowichan.

THOMAS PITT,
Mayor of Duncan.
J. ISLAY MUTTER,
Reeve of North Cowichan.
J. S. L. MAITLAND-DOUGALL, Government Agent,
Cowichan Electoral District.

The Prince in reply, congratulated the district on its splendid response to the call to arms and the steps it was taking in the matter of caring for the returned soldiers. Reference was also made to the scenic beauties of the district, the reply concluding with the expression of the hope that at some future date he would be able to make a long sojourn in the district. Colonel Moss and Colonel Oldham were then presented to His Royal Highness, who proceeded to inspect the returned officers and men who constituted the guard of honor. The Prince congratulated the president of the Cowichan Branch of the Great War Veterans' Association on the pleasing design of an arch erected in his honor and bearing the simple words, "Welcome to Our Comrade." The Royal visitor was much interested in the daylight fireworks display staged by the Japanese residents who also had erected a welcome arch.

Mrs. Moss, who was in her uniform of a commandant of the Women's Royal Air Force and wearing the order of the British Empire received special recognition from the Prince, who also chatted with Miss Anna Bolt, an Imperial nurse with twenty years of service to her credit, who was wearing the Kaiser-i-Hind and Delhi Darbar medals. The long service ribbons worn by Hon. Miss Robert Stewart and Miss Norah Denny attracted the attention of the Prince, and he questioned them as to their nursing service. Boy Scouts and Girl Guides were then inspected by the Prince, who congratulated their respective commanders. After opening the fair His Royal Highness was presented with a magnificent basket of fruit by a little daughter of a soldier who was killed in France. The Royal train left at a few minutes before eleven o'clock amid lusty acclamations from thousands of delighted spectators.

At Ladysmith.

The Royal train arrived at Ladysmith in due course, and a loyal welcome was again accorded to the Hereditary Prince. The returned soldiers were lined up

CHANGES PLANS FOR RETURN TOUR

Prince Will Remain at Winnipeg From October 10 to October 14

The Prince of Wales has decided to forego his hunting trip in the Biscotasing (Ontario) district in the middle of October to permit of his paying a return visit to Winnipeg and also paying his postponed visit to the mining districts of Cobalt and Timmins. From Winnipeg, where the Royal party will remain from October 10 to October 14, the Prince will be given an opportunity to shoot duck on the Manitoba lakes.

The itinerary up to Portage La Prairie stands as originally projected. Arriving in Winnipeg during the afternoon of October 10, the Royal party will halt for their second visit to the city, and the Prince will attend a popular ball which has been arranged for that evening in Winnipeg. It is understood that the programme in Winnipeg will be informal and the Prince will spend the time renewing acquaintance in the city and partaking of the hospitality of Manitobans.

Leaving Winnipeg October 14, the Royal train will go straight to Cobalt via North Bay and the Canadian railways, arriving in the mining town October 14. The Prince will spend this day between Cobalt and Timmins, which he will leave on the evening of October 16 and resume his original schedule at Hamilton on October 18. From there, the programme will be carried out as projected.

MANUFACTURERS SAY EASTERNERS FAVORED

Charge That Orders For Equipment of Vessels Here
Go to Montreal

A vigorous protest will be made by the B. C. Manufacturers' Association and the Metal Trades Employers' Association of British Columbia, against the placing of orders for equipment for vessels built in this Province, with eastern firms.

The matter was discussed at meetings of the two bodies mentioned, one held on Tuesday night in Vancouver, and the other on Wednesday night, at the latter meeting it being decided to leave the framing of a protest with the executive committee, to act in conjunction with the executive of the Metal Trades Employers' Association.

E. V. Young, of the North Shore Iron Works, Ltd., informed the meeting of the B. C. Manufacturers' Association on Wednesday that his firm had tendered on winches for vessels being built at Wallace's yard, according to specifications received from the department at Ottawa, and had even made certain changes afterwards to suit the department. Orders for the winches had been placed with the North Shore Iron Works, but after a certain number had been supplied, the order had been cancelled by one of the inspectors of the department.

It had been since admitted, said Mr. Young, that instructions had been given in the accepting of tenders, to place the orders with the Vickers firm of Montreal. The Schaake Machinery Company and Allan and McKelvie had met with a like experience, and he had learned that not only the local orders, but also the orders for the equipment of boats being built at Prince Rupert and Victoria had been given to the Vickers firm. He produced a copy of a report made for his firm by an independent local marine engineer, on the make and materials of winches manufactured by his firm, as compared with those manufactured by the Vickers firm, the report very strongly favoring the local manufacturer.

He failed to see why such "marked antagonism" should be shown to the manufacturers of this Province, he declared, but said there was no doubt that policy of the department at Ottawa was to "knock" the manufacturers on the Coast. He had complained to the deputy minister and had received a reply that no discrimination had been shown and that the department would welcome an investigation.

James Ramsay, president, expressed the belief that there was "a nigger in the woodpile somewhere." All that the manufacturers of the Coast asked for was fair play.

J. A. Brodie stated that his firm had tendered on naval supplies, according to specifications furnished, and had not been successful. He had visited the naval stores afterwards and had examined the goods supplied, finding that they were not made according to specifications at all.

The executive was instructed to take the matter in hand and frame a vigorous protest in conjunction with the Metal Trades Association.

UNCLE WIGGILY AND JILLIE'S CANDY.

Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
(By Howard R. Garis.)

"There's a letter for you, Uncle
Wiggily," said Nurse Jane. "Nurse Wuzzy, the muskrat lady, housekeeper, to the bunny rabbit gentleman one day."

"Where?" asked Mr. Longears as he stood his red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch up in a corner of his hollow stump bungalow.

"On the mantel," answered Nurse Jane. "The bunny rabbit took down the little letter, which was written with ink made from poke berries, on white birch bark, and having twinkled his pink nose and polished his glasses on his tall, silk hat, Uncle Wiggily read this invitation:

"Please come to my candy pull tonight."

"Tours truly,
"JILLIE LONGTAIL."

"Dear me!" exclaimed Uncle Wig-gily.

"What's the matter?" asked Nurse Jane, who was setting the table for supper.

"Why, somebody is going to pull Jillie Longtail's candy away from her and she wants me to help her hold it," I guess," said Uncle Wiggily. "I must hurry right over to the house where my little mouse girl friend lives. Dear me! Pulling her candy away from her! The idea!"

"Nonsense!" laughed Nurse Jane.
"Jillie is going to pull up on the stove some molasses and sugar and other sweet things. That will make candy. After it is boiled and gets cold it is pulled into long sticks.

"Pulling candy, as you pull a rubber string, makes the sweet stuff whiter, too. Candy pulls are lots of fun!"

"Then I'm going to Jillie's," said
Uncle Wiggily.

"Better put on a suit of old clothes," advised Nurse Jane.

"Why?" asked the bunny.
"Because you might happen to sit down on a bit of soft-molasses candy," answered Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy.

"That's so—I might," agreed Uncle Wiggily. So he put on a suit of old clothes that he used to go fishing in, and soon after supper he was on his way toward the home of Jillie Longtail, the mouse girl.

"I'm so glad you came!" spoke Jillie Longtail, who was Jillie's brother. He opened the door for the bunny rabbit gentleman.

"He found many of his friends at Jillie's candy pull. Sammie and Sue Littletail, the rabbits, were there, as were Alice, Lulu and Jimmie Wibblewobble, and they laughed when they thought how Uncle Wig-gily had hidden under the leaves in the woods the day before.

"Jackie and Peetle Bow Bow, the puppy dog boys, helped Jillie and Jillie Longtail get ready to make the candy, which, after it had boiled, and cooled, would be pulled into light brown sticks.

"Molasses, sugar, butter, vinegar, cocoanut and a few other things were put on the stove to boil. The stove was in the kitchen of the mouse house, and out in the kitchen Uncle Wiggily and the animal children had lots of fun while the candy was boiling.

"I guess it's ready to pour out, now, and let cool, so we can pull it," squeaked Jillie, as she dropped a little of the boiling candy into a cup of cold water, and watched it get hard.

"That's how you tell when candy is done."

"Yes, it's all ready," said the little mouse girl. "Will you help me, Uncle Wiggily?"

"Surely," answered the rabbit gentleman. So he poured the hot candy out on greased tin pans. The grease stopped the candy from sticking. The pans, full of candy, were set out on the back porch to cool, and soon it was ready to pull. I mean the candy was ready to pull—not the back porch.

Uncle Wiggily, and each one of his animal friends, was given a chunk of the molasses taffy. Everyone butter-

A. B. Fraser is in receipt of a cable announcing the marriage of his sister Amy Caroline Fraser, fifth daughter of A. B. Fraser, "Caribrooke," Balmoral Road, this city, to Thomas Claude Randolph Savage, youngest son of Mr. William Savage, of Liverpool, England. The marriage was solemnized on the 25th inst. at St.

Ann's Church, Stanley, Liverpool, the officiating clergyman being the Rev.
W. J. Easley, M. A. The bride has a large circle of friends in Victoria, who have testified to her popularity by forwarding to Liverpool many handsome gifts. The groom saw three years' service in France being attached to one of the medical corps sent from England. The honeymoon is being spent at the English Lakes, after which Mr. and Mrs. Savage will return to Mossley Hill, Liverpool, where they have purchased a home.

Few officers had more varied experience overseas than Major E. B.
Hart, who has returned after more than three years' absence. Leaving Victoria early in 1916 with the 88th Battalion, Major Hart went to the 16th Battalion during the battle of the Somme. There he took part in the capture of Regina Trench in which his unit played so distinguished a part and before he had been in France more than a few weeks had earned the Military Cross for his gallantry. Although his health was anything but good he stayed with the 16th Battalion until early in 1918, when, after being evacuated, he volunteered for service under Col. J.
E. Leckie in North Russia. There he served until the Canadian force was withdrawn, within the last two months and reached home this week.
Major Hart was regarded as a capable and very gallant officer by his comrades in the 16th.

ed his paws, so the candy would not stick.

"Now everybody pull!" cried Jillie.
So they all pulled the taffy, stretching it out as far as they could, cutting the ends together and pulling them out again.

After a while some of the animal boys and girls became tired of pulling candy and they went into the other room to dance. But Uncle Wiggily and Grandpa Goosey, and he and Uncle Wiggily sat down. But they kept on pulling the candy, even sitting in chairs.

All of a sudden there was a puff of smoke and something blazed up on the stove!

"Oh! Oh! Oh!" squeaked Jillie. "I forgot and left some molasses in the pan on the stove, and now it's on fire! Oh, the house will burn down!
Quick, Uncle Wiggily! Help me save it!"

Uncle Wiggily tried to run to the sink and get some water for the blazing molasses. But he couldn't get up! He was stuck fast to his chair by the sticky molasses candy some one had left there.

"Oh, what shall I do? I can't get up!" cried the bunny, twisting and turning.

"I'll save the house!" quacked Grandpa Goosey. Quickly he took a big watermelon from the ice box and threw it on the stove. And the water from the melon put out the fire, and no damage was done and no one was burned. Then Mrs. Longtail poured some other water at the place where Uncle Wiggily was stuck fast to the chair, and soon he could get loose.

But there was quite some excitement for a time, and Sammie Little-tail, who had left the chunk of molasses on the chair, said he was sorry.
Then the candy was ready to eat, after it had been pulled enough, and everybody said it was just fine. And they all declared that Grandpa Goosey was very brave, and put out the fire with the watermelon.

So if the doll carriage doesn't run over the roller skate when they're playing jumping rope tag with the sidewalk scooter, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the coconuts.

CHINESE PROTEST DISFRANCHISEMENT UNDER AMENDMENT

Wire to Prime Minister and Remind Him of Utländer Question

The introduction in the House of Commons by the Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Solicitor-General, of a bill to amend the bye-elections legislation disfranchising Asiatics in the forthcoming elections, has elicited a strongly worded protest from Ottawa from prominent local Chinese. They contend that this measure deprives them of their constitutional rights and that it treats their Naturalization Certificate as a scrap of paper.

The communication which has been sent to Ottawa is as follows: "At a meeting held to-day of natural born and naturalized subjects of Chinese race the following telegram of protest was authorized. It is reported in the Vancouver Province of September 23 that owing to representation made by the British Columbia members to the Government, a bill was introduced into the House of Commons on Monday by Hon. Hugh Guthrie, the Solicitor-General, to amend the Bye-Elections Act by disfranchising Chinese British subjects.

"We the undersigned natural born and naturalized British subjects of Chinese race strongly protest against our rights being thus unjustly taken away. We are real property owners and tax payers, and we would respectfully refer you to the Naturalization papers which we request you not to make scraps of paper.

"Lee Quong Wal, Lee Shuck Chew, Lee Yook Quon, representing hundred and fifteen natural born Canadians.

AFTER SUFFERING A WHOLE YEAR

Mrs. King Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Iola, Kansas.—"I was a constant sufferer from female trouble for about a year. I had pains in my back and stomach, in fact all over me, and was all run down. A friend of mine was cured of the same trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and it gave me health and strength and made a new woman of me. I cannot praise your Compound too highly, and you may publish my testimonial as it may be the means of helping some other suffering woman."—Mrs. IRENE KING, 105 West Campbell Street, Iola, Kansas.

The great number of unqualified testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory, many of which are from time to time published by permission, are proof of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, in the treatment of female ills.

Every ailing woman in the United States is cordially invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free, ready to bring you health and may save your life.

Mah Chan, Jang Doon, representing 400 naturalized British subjects.

Apparently the attention of the Government was drawn to the registration of Chinese, and Mr. Guthrie's bill is the result. The Dominion election law for some years has prescribed the use of Provincial voters' lists for Federal elections, and as under the provincial law Asiatics should not qualify, they were ineligible to vote in either Provincial or Dominion contests.

The power of the Province to debar Asiatics from exercising the franchise was challenged some years ago in the famous Tommy's case in which the Privy Council upheld the right of the Provincial Legislature to say who shall or shall not vote in Provincial elections. The local Chinese claim that notwithstanding the decision in that case they are constitutionally entitled to vote; that as far as those who have been naturalized are concerned they have been granted by their naturalization certificate "all political and other rights, powers and privileges," and that this is a solemn contract which cannot lawfully be set aside. They are ready to contest that issue again before the Privy Council, being convinced that this aspect of the question could not have been drawn to the attention of the high tribunal in London in the Tommy's case.

LADYSMITH ADDRESS

Magnificent Harbor, Prince Is Told,
Has Bright Future For Industries.

The Ladysmith address to the Prince said: To His Royal Highness Edward Albert Christian George Andrew Patrick David, Prince of Wales and Earl of Chester, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; Duke of Cornwall, in the Peerage of England; Duke of Rothesay, Earl of Carrick, and Baron of Renfrew, in the Peerage of Scotland; Lord of the Isles and Great Steward of Scotland, K. G., G. M. G., M. C., etc. May it please Your Royal Highness: We esteem it a very great privilege to be able on behalf of the citizens of Ladysmith, to welcome Your Highness to our city and district; not only on account of our regard for you personally, but also for the sake of our Beloved King, your father.

We would ask you to convey to His Majesty, the assurance of our sincere and continued loyalty to his person and throne, as we feel has so recently been demonstrated by the large number of our men who have served the Empire during the "Great War."

Your own observation will suggest the beautiful situation of our city, with its natural harbor and facilities for the distribution of products of our coal mines, upon which the prosperity of Ladysmith depends, at the same time affording us ample scope for the extension of industries such as dock yards, ship building, smelting and lumber manufacturing.

We trust the remembrance of your visit to our beautiful island will be amongst your most pleasant recollections.

We have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your Royal Highness' most obedient servants,
WM. ANDERSON, Mayor,

PATHFINDER 2 GOES TO DUNCAN FOR FAIR

Piloted by Harry Brown, M.C., and with Mr. Plant, mechanic, as a passenger, the Pathfinder II. left Victoria at fourteen minutes to ten this morning and flew to Duncan, where she arrived at fourteen minutes after ten, having covered the distance in twenty-eight minutes. The machine, circling overhead, heralded the arrival of the Prince of Wales, who, shortly afterwards, stepped off the Royal train. In connection with the opening of the Duncan fair, the machine was "stunted" and passengers were carried.

The local branch of the Aerial League is having a busy time just now filling exhibition contracts. The whole of next week will be devoted to exhibition flying and passenger carrying at Ganges, Saanich and Puyallup, Washington.

ITALY HAS HONORED COL. "JIM" SCLATER

Commissioner Now Cavalier of the Order of St. Maurice and St. Lazarus

Still another honor has been bestowed upon Lieut.-Colonel James Sclater, British Columbia's Prohibition Commissioner. In recognition of his services to the armies on the Italian front, King Victor Emmanuel's Government has created him a Cavalier of the Order of St. Maurice and St. Lazarus. This announcement was made in a recent issue of The London Gazette.

A magnificent military record stands to the credit of Colonel Sclater. Although by no means a young man he has withstood the rigors of nearly four years of active service, the last twelve months of which took him to the Italian front. He marched away from the headquarters of the 29th Battalion (The Buffs), with the rank of junior major, commanding "B" company. He served through all the gruelling battles of the fall and winter of 1916 and at the beginning of 1917 he was called to 2nd Army Headquarters (General Sir Herbert Plumer), to organize a Scouting and Snipers' School—the first of its kind in France. Colonel Sclater remained in command of this school until December, 1917, when he was ordered by the War Office to report to General Plumer's Headquarters in Italy. Here he organized another Scouting and Snipers' School, trained French and Italian officers, as well as details from the British Forces in Italy. It was his year's work here that earned for him the distinction of which mention is made above.

During his long service overseas Colonel Sclater was awarded the Distinguished Service Order, the 1914-15 Star, the Long Service Medal, the Order of the Crown of Belgium (officer), the Croix de Guerre (France), the Croix de Guerre (Belgium) and now the Order of St. Maurice and St. Lazarus of Italy.

But war brought its sorrows as well as its honors to Colonel Sclater. Of his family of seven children, one son, Captain J. L. Sclater, of the 7th Battalion, and his son-in-law, Lieut. A. A. Harvey, of the 3rd Battalion, made the supreme sacrifice in action.

FAIR PREPARES FOR THE PRINCE

Royal Party Expected to Visit Show on Saturday; Local Producers Organize

Publicity Commissioner, Mr. Adam and George L. Warren, manager of the Home Products Fair, received word this afternoon from Major-General Leckie at Duncan that Kenneth Duncan, M.P., this morning presented to the Prince the invitation of the officers of the Fair to visit the show to-morrow. Just what time the Royal party will pay their visit is being arranged by Admiral Sir Lionel Halsey, of the Prince's staff.

Preparations were ordered at the Home Products Fair to-day by Manager George L. Warren for the reception of the Prince of Wales when he visits the show to-morrow, as expected.

It was not known this afternoon just what time the Prince would visit the show, but it was anticipated that he would arrive in the afternoon or the early part of the evening. Officials of the fair were in long-distance communication with the Prince's party up the island this afternoon trying to arrange the exact time of the visit.

Exhibitors and officials at the fair held their luncheon to-day. It was served by the King's Daughters at their tea rooms in the balcony of the building.

As a result of the luncheon a committee consisting of Carl Pendray, Harold McNaughton, A. H. Pease and Frederick James was formed on the suggestion of Gordon Jameson to look after the advertising and to further the interests of local manufacturers and producers, and if finances permit that a sum of money be appropriated for this purpose and be handled by the Victoria and Island Development Association with the assistance of a committee of exhibitors.

To Start at Once

This committee will take up its work at once and report within a few weeks. It is expected that there will be at least $1,000 available for the purposes of advertising throughout the year to advance the interests of Victoria manufacturers along the general lines that prompted the organization of the fair.

President Pendray explained that of the $1,000 credit from last year's Fair, $1,000 had been spent in improving the road to the shipyards to help them get in their goods with less trouble.

E. J. Down said that much of the work of the committee will be to get the fair started at once and report within a few weeks. It is expected that there will be at least $1,000 available for the purposes of advertising throughout the year to advance the interests of Victoria manufacturers along the general lines that prompted the organization of the fair.

During his long service overseas Colonel Sclater was awarded the Distinguished Service Order, the 1914-15 Star, the Long Service Medal, the Order of the Crown of Belgium (officer), the Croix de Guerre (France), the Croix de Guerre (Belgium) and now the Order of St. Maurice and St. Lazarus of Italy.

success of the Fair was due to the newspapers.

Local Firm's Success.
To show what can be done with the fruit industry on and around Victoria Mr. Pendray told of the success of Hamsterley Farm under A. H. Pease. The organization was started in 1916 with himself, his wife and one woman the only employees. In 1917 the employees were increased to six. In 1918 to twelve. This year the organization employs thirty-six women and twelve men, with 64,800 square feet of manufacturing space and two local retail stores.

They have shipped 1,000 cases of strawberry jam to Winnipeg and fifteen carloads of preserves to Calgary. For next year they have an order for 14,000 cases of jam to be sent to Winnipeg.

B. C.'s Diamond Stud.
J. W. Connell said that co-operation and unity would make Vancouver Island the diamond stud on the shirt-front of British Columbia.

W. A. Jameson said that the show, by being properly managed and kept close to a people's fair, he complimented Manager Warren and said that Vancouver is seeking Mr. Warren to get him to go over there and straighten out their fair.

W. H. P. Sweeney declared the Home Products Fair had not yet reached the peak.

We continue the show we will assume great achievements," he of thehrdutaohndruuuphr aol rd u said. He suggested that at the opening of the fair wholesalers and retailers should attend to get the words of wisdom that fall from the lips of those presiding at the opening ceremonies.

Public Pleased.
Manager George L. Warren said the success of the fair was due to co-operation. He urged all to practice what they preach and patronize home industry all around.

"The public seem to be pleased with the exhibits," Mr. Warren went on. "And I hope the efforts of the exhibitors will be rewarded by increased patronage from the people of this community."

A. H. Pease said that the Saanich and Gordon Head Fruitgrowers were organized and urged that they should extend their organization to cover the unorganized districts.

J. G. Thompson told of the success of fruit organizations south of the line, and Mr. Pease added that one of these companies was even buying cherries from Vancouver Island orchards.

Attendance Record.
Yesterday's attendance at the Fair was 3,298, bringing the total for the week up to 18,442 against 16,294 for the first four days of last year.

To-morrow night at 8 o'clock a committee of Mayor Porter, Jack F. Scott, President of the Rotary Club, and John Cochrane, president of the Canadian Club, will make a tour of the exhibits to select the best exhibit in the Fair, which will be awarded the cup presented by the Georgian Hotel of Seattle, through its local representative Joe North.

To-day besides being Island Day in the fair, apart for special tribute to the members of the Great War Veterans. The programme for to-night is being arranged by the members of that organization.

The inmates of the Old Men's Home at the Willows are the guests of the Fair to-day.

Last night Abbie and Jumbo Davis, seven and six years old respectively, entertained the crowd by a beautiful musical programme being put on by the Great War Veterans to-night at 8.30 o'clock, consists of a solo by H. A. Beckwith and musical selections by Miss Watson, Lieut. W. Watson, Sergt. Tom Watson and Sergt. J. Watson.

CITES AMERICAN LAW IN CHURCH TAX CASE

Mr. Justice Macdonald Helps Out Counsel on Both Sides in Supreme Court To-day

Harold Robertson, representing the city, and F. A. McDiarmid, representing the Bishop of Vancouver Island, are still arguing in the Supreme Court before Mr. Justice Macdonald, whether church land as well as the building should be exempt from taxation. The trouble was started when the city announced that it proposed to sell St. Andrew's Cathedral property at View and Blanshard Streets last May for $18,000 of taxes that were due.

Mr. Justice Macdonald to-day helped out each side by giving each a case to support his contentions. The cases were both decisions handed down by courts in the United States, and both were identical in many ways with the local case. One decision favored the contention of Mr. McDiarmid and the other the contention of Mr. Robertson.

The decision in the case of Trinity Church, Boston, in the Massachusetts Courts, supported the claim of Mr. McDiarmid and the local Roman Catholic authorities. But the decision in a case before the Michigan Courts was in favor of Mr. Robertson and the city.

Mr. Robertson claimed that the city assessor was within his legal rights in taxing the church property and that the city officials were right in ordering the sale of the property when the taxes were not paid.

Prince to Leave For Stars.—Official announcement was made to-day that the Prince of Wales would leave Ottawa on November 10, and would proceed to Washington.

Will Give Dance.—The entertainment at the K. of C. Hut to-night will consist of a military 500 followed by a dance to which all returned men and their lady friends are invited.

MRS. ROBERT BEAVEN IS CALLED BY DEATH

Well-known Pioneer Lady Succumbs at Advanced Age

Another well-known pioneer of this city passed away early this morning at the family residence, 626 Vancouver Street, of Mrs. Susan Sibbald Beaven, wife of Hon. Robert Beaven. Up till six months ago Mrs. Beaven, who was in her eightieth year, was enjoying the best of health.

The late lady came to Victoria in 1864 via "Panama." She then sailed to come to Canada, with her father, Rev. Canon Ritchie, who was chaplain to one of the British regiments stationed in Ontario. There she met Hon. Mr. Beaven.

The late Mrs. Beaven was extremely well-known and highly esteemed in this city, being connected with numerous philanthropic institutions. She leaves to mourn her loss besides her husband, the Hon. Mr. Victor Spencer, of London, and H. R. Beaven, manager of the Douglas Street branch of the Bank of Commerce.

The funeral will take place on Monday morning at 11 o'clock from Christ Church Cathedral. No flowers by request.

WOULD FORCE CITY TO ARBITRATE

Counsel For Westholme Co.
Applies For Court Order in Waterworks Case

W. J. Taylor, K. C., applied to Mr. Justice Macdonald in chambers to-day for an order to compel the city of Victoria to proceed with the arbitration over the amount the Westholme Lumber Company is to pay the city arising from the Sooke waterworks contract.

This waterworks system was completed by the city after the Westholme company stopped work. The whole case has been before the court for some years and went to the Privy Council, which body gave a decision in favor of the city.

Mr. Justice Macdonald to-day reversed his decision.

The city undertook under the decision of the Privy Council to hold an arbitration to assess the amount that the Westholme Company should pay and appointed W. W. Bell as arbitrator.

Regarding the delay in proceeding with the arbitration, the city has maintained that the matter was in the hands of the Westholme Company as far as actually opening the arbitration.

UPHOLDS OPINION OF MAGISTRATE

Judge Declares Poolroom
Proprietors Must Ascertain Boys' Ages

Mr. Justice Macdonald in Chambers to-day upheld the decision of Magistrate Jay in the Police Court to the effect that responsibility for seeing that boys in poolrooms were more than eighteen years of age rests upon the poolroom proprietors.

The question was taken up by Frank Higgins, representing Antonio Zarrell, 584 Johnson Street, who was fined $10 in the Police Court on July 30 for allowing young boys under 18 years in his poolroom. The defence was that the boys had been asked what their ages were and they had assured the proprietor that they were more than eighteen.

C. L. Harrison, city prosecutor, represented the city before Mr. Justice Macdonald, and after citing numerous cases to show that onus in such instances was on the proprietor, said that the evidence showed that Mr. Zarrell had permitted one of the boys to visit the poolroom for three weeks during which time he made no enquiry. When he did enquire of his age, Mr. Harrison declared, it was not a proper enquiry because the answer was suggested to the boys by the signs posted around the poolroom warning boys under eighteen years to keep out.

"It seems to me that the Magistrate was quite correct in his finding," said Mr. Justice Macdonald. "The purposes of the by-law otherwise would be destroyed."

NO MINISTER HERE

Every Member of Cabinet Absent
From Town; Finance Minister
Went to Vancouver Last Night.

It was expected that there would be one Cabinet Minister in town to-day. But there is not a single member of the Executive Council in Victoria. Hon. John Hart, who intended to remain at the Parliament Buildings while his colleagues were absent in their several directions, found it necessary to go to Vancouver last night in connection with the forthcoming sittings of municipal delegates called for the purpose of discussing the possibility of additional sources of revenue for municipalities.

To-day is the first occasion upon which the capital has been left without a Minister on duty since the administration took office.

AMERICANS UNABLE TO RETURN FROM GERMANY

Berlin, Sept. 26.—Americans who refused to accept the charges repeatedly offered to leave Germany before the United States entered the war now are finding great difficulty in obtaining passports to the United States.

Mr. H. H. Higgins in the Berlin opera, and her husband, both of whom are American citizens, and who remained here during the war, yesterday received word from the German authorities that their applications for passports were rejected.

MANY NEW CARS.

Washington, Sept. 26.—The shortage in ordinary cars for the lumber mills of the Pacific Northwest is being met largely with new cars. "Up to September 25," said Director Hines to-day, "64,250 new cars have been accepted and placed in service. Approximately 5,000 additional of these cars were put in service during the week ended September 20."

TEARS OF THE GREAT.

Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg would seem to think he has made a score at the expense of Sir E. Goschen in his revelation of the fact that our Ambassador in Berlin shed tears at the fateful moment, but history will surely place that weakness among those which it does not condemn, especially when it is remarkable that if Sir Edward was the servant of one of the great countries passing into war, he had ties of ancestry with the other.

The tears of the world's notables fall into very different categories. No one wastes sympathy with George Pitt in the tears he shed when he was forced at last to receive the elder Pitt; no one withholds it from poor little Queen Victoria when, her face red and swollen with weeping, she faced the necessity of parting with the Minister who had been a father as well as a servant to her. King John's tears at Runnymede only carry him deeper into the pit of contempt; but there was something which demands silence and respect in Wellington weeping over the carnage at Waterloo.—Tit-Bits.

BILL FEATHERED BY STEVENS TO AMEND WATER CARRIAGE ACT

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—A bill has been presented in the Commons by H. H. Stevens, M.P. for Centre Vancouver, to amend the Water Carriage Goods Act. The measure would make of no effect the provision included by shipowners in their bills of lading by which they decline to make good loss due to damage or breakage of goods in their custody for transportation. The Canadian law holds shipowners liable for damage to goods carried on Canadian inland waters. Mr. Stevens' bill would extend this liability to the coastwise and overseas Canadian trade.

CHAMPION JERSEY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Rosewood Model Kitty, No. 7610, the champion Jersey cow of British Columbia, belonging to W. A. Willett of Duncan, is depicted above.

When she arrived at Duncan on the train last week, residents of the district turned out and cheered her; as she had brought to the district the highest honors from the Vancouver exhibition.

She won the three-year-old class senior championship and the grand championship at Vancouver this year. Last year she won the two-year-old class and championship at the Cowichan Fall Fair.

As a two-year-old she produced under R.O.P. test, 7,771 pounds of milk and 428 pounds of butter fat, with an average test of 5.51 per cent.

Because of her record, her picture is now to be spread broadcast throughout the world by the Victoria and Island Development Association, which is trying to make known the advantages of the Cowichan district as a dairying centre.

Rosewood Model Kitty is to be seen at the Cowichan Fall Fair which opened at Duncan to-day. There, however, she is having placed in competition against another Jersey which is considered a coming champion. She is owned by H. W. Bevan of the Happy Hollow Farm, Duncan.

COMPETING WITH B. C. CHAMPIONSHIP HOLDER

H. W. Bevan, of the Happy Hollow Farm, Duncan, has made such a record with his Jersey cow, shown above, that she is in the contest with the B. C. Champion, Rosewood Model Kitty, No. 7610, at the Cowichan Fall Fair, which opened to-day.

the matter of the Ritchie-Agnew Power company's rights at Stamp Falls.

A hearing is to be held by the Board of Investigation under the Water Act at Victoria on Thursday, October 16, says the Port Alberni News, when the company will be called upon to show why an approval of its undertaking to develop power should be granted or otherwise. It is assumed that unless the company can give satisfactory assurances of its intention and ability to proceed with the work its rights will be cancelled.

Official notification of the hearing was forwarded to the Council and read at the regular weekly meeting on Monday night. R. J. Burde, M.P.P., who was present at the meeting suggested that the Council should send a representative, with a prepared case, to the hearing. The suggestion was accepted and the mayor was appointed to represent the city, the member for the district agreeing also to attend.

In the meantime the Council will decide whether it is advisable, in the city's interests, to offer to stay with its part of the agreement made in the year 1914.

COWICHAN FAIR OPENED BY PRINCE

Agricultural Society's Exhibition Maintains High Standard

Duncan, Sept. 26.—Aptly called the Victory Exhibition, the fifty-first annual fall fair of the Cowichan Agricultural Society opened this morning under the most favorable auspices. Glorious weather has placed the whole district into holiday mood, the visit of the Prince of Wales—though of brief duration—putting the crowning touch on the festivities.

Opened by Prince. Shortly after ten o'clock this morning the fair was formally opened by His Royal Highness, who expressed his admiration at the splendid showing of produce. Accompanied by Rear-Admiral Sir Lionel Halsey and other members of his personal staff, the Prince walked all-round the show, exhibiting the keenest interest in the many and varied classes of produce. The following officers of the society were present to welcome the heir-apparent: K. F. Duncan, M.P.P., hon. president; C. J. V. Spratt, president, E. W. Paterson and F. J. Bishop, vice-presidents, and W. Waldon, secretary-treasurer.

The Board of Directors were also present, including H. W. Bevan, L. W. Huntington, A. A. Mutter, J. L. Mutter, E. W. Neel, W. Paterson, A. H. Peterson, A. W. Johnson, H. J. Ruscombe Poole, Hugh Savage, L. F. Solly and G. A. Tisdall.

Quality Not Quantity. A striking decorative scheme in which tri-color bunting and flags were used in lavishing profusion furnished an effective background, against which the greenery and vivid colorings of flowers and fruit stood out with glowing effect.

While the number of exhibits is somewhat smaller than at last year's fair, the quality is of a high standard and uniformly excellent. Altogether there are 1,850 entries in all classes, made up as follows: Horses, 74; cattle, 146; sheep, 76; pigs, 36; goats, 27; poultry, 142; rabbits, 13; dairy products and honey, 45; field produce, 52; garden, 282; district exhibits, 3; fruit, 228; ladies' work, 68; domestic science, 293; girls' work, 71; flowers, 66; art, 103; babies, 37; Indian entries, 66.

Magnificent Cattle. Outstanding in number and quality of exhibits is the cattle class, in which there is 146 entries alone, with Jersey predominating. Breeders who are earning for Vancouver Island a reputation as the home of pedigree stock of the highest grade have sent in splendid animals, of a standard fit to be placed in competition with pedigree cattle the world over. W. A. Willett, who won the Grand Championship and first and second in yearling class in Jerseys at the recent Vancouver fair, is showing a magnificent entry of seven Jerseys. G. T. Corfield has entered over thirty head of Holsteins and Jerseys; H. W. Bevan is exhibiting seventeen head of Jerseys; C. J. V. Spratt, seven pure bred Holsteins, and J. Evans and Son, six head of Holsteins, in addition to a number of smaller exhibitors.

Local sheep men are well represented with seventy-six entries in the various classes—and the general excellence of their condition suggests a big future for this class of animal in the Cowichan district. Pigs, goats, poultry and rabbits are all of high standard, there being 142 entries in poultry alone.

Effects of Drought. The long drought finds its reflection in the somewhat small exhibit in the garden produce classes. There is, however, a remarkably fine showing of onions, these comparing well in size and standard with those shown at any fair in the Province. Potatoes, too, are of generally high grade, considering the lack of rain during the past season.

In the fruit classes, apples predominate, many fine specimens and many varieties being shown. Some of the wonderful comprehensive district exhibits, embracing field and garden produce, domestic science and dairy produce—each being a miniature fall fair in itself.

Exhibit of Seeds. There is a noticeable increase in the showing of seeds, which have been sent in for exhibition only. Sweet pea seeds are shown in great variety and suggest the vast possibilities of this district as a seed-raising country.

Ladies' work, domestic science, girls' work, school children's exhibits all have good entries, the general excellence of which make the task of the Judges no sinecure. Flowers are fewer in number, possibly on account of the lack of rain during the past season.

Baby Clinic. Of special interest to the mothers is the Baby Clinic, at which kiddies are being examined by Dr. E. A. Price, of Victoria. This feature has been arranged by Mrs. V. S. MacLachlan, of Victoria, and Miss Wilson, of Duncan, the equipment being generously loaned by the King's Daughters' Hospital. A series of anti-tuberculosis posters and panels loaned by the Vancouver Bureau of Health completes this interesting and instructive exhibit.

The usual side-shows offer considerable attraction to the crowds who are to-day thronging the show grounds. The fair will remain open until Saturday.

Cincy Makes Arrangements to Father the Fans Attending the World Series Games

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 26.—Baseball enthusiasts from all parts of the country will come to Cincinnati to see the Cincinnati Nationals and the Chicago White Sox clash in the world series games, if letters requesting seat reservations and hotel accommodations can be relied upon.

President "Garry" Herrmann, of the Cincinnati Nationals, was besieged weeks in advance of the closing of the National League season for tickets for the games by Cincinnati followers of the "Reds" and by "fans" from every section of the country, who desired to witness the games to be played in this city. Hotels also reported that hundreds of requests for rooms had been received. To give every attention and convenience to visitors during the world's series games, the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce planned to co-operate with the Cincinnati club management.

Acting on the request of President August Herrmann the Convention and Publicity Department of the Chamber of Commerce named a special committee of five to devise means for best meeting the desires of Mr. Herrmann.

To Handle Crowd.
The committee arranged to establish a hotel bureau in charge of a competent staff to look after all requests for accommodations. It was decided to list every available hotel room and to add to these accommodations a survey of every room in boarding houses and private residences where visitors could be lodged. All these rooms were to be inspected.

To Park Pullman's.
Word was sent to Washington, D.C., requesting the co-operation of the Railroad Administration in the matter of obtaining desirable parking places for special Pullman cars carrying large private parties to the games. It was expected that many visitors would utilize their cars for sleeping purposes while in the city, providing they had parking places.

Arrangements also were in preparation for suitable parking places for the automobiles of out-of-town visitors and for parking places in the vicinity of the baseball park during the games.

The Light Fingering Gentry.
For the protection of patrons visiting Cincinnati and Chicago during the playing of the series detectives who are specialists in dealing with pickpockets and auto thieves will be very active in both cities. A large number of Chicago plain clothes men will be on duty here while the teams are in Cincinnati and in turn the local experts will mingle with the crowds when the scene shifts to Chicago.

Time was when the pickpocket clans gathered from the four quarters of the country to follow the pennant winning baseball teams to the fields of world's series combats. But times have changed, say the police, and now it is easier to steal automobiles than to extract a fat purse from the pocket of an excited fan.

The professional "dip" still attends world's championship battles, but his profession has fallen into decay. The one-time adept at snipping a sparkler from a scarfpin whose artful methods combined courage and a sort of legerdemain is as scarce as radium, according to detectives.

Autos Are Easy.
Picking pockets always was hazardous and stealing automobiles has become profitable with even less element of risk. So the pickpocket fraternity has lost many members to the easier means of unlawful profit, say the plain clothes men.

But the police have catalogued the pickpockets pretty thoroughly. As a world series or other national gathering takes the stage, detectives go on watch at the railway stations. The light-fingering gentry are met by the reception committee and escorted to rooms at detective headquarters where they remain, as guests usually, until those with whom they hoped to brush shoulders have gone away.

Some "dips" escape the net, however, and practice their art with more or less success. A world series game invariably is the scene of operations for a number of them. Other thieves are there, too. The automobile thieves predominate. The automobile contests between the Chicago Cubs and Boston Red Sox in Chicago last year, the police arrested eighty-five suspected pickpockets and auto thieves. Nearly 100 motor cars were driven away from the vicinity of the baseball park by persons not their own. The majority were recovered, but many were not.

FOURTEEN TO ONE ALL STARS TOTAL AGAINST BREMERTON

Veterans Took U.S. Navy Men to Camp and Made Rings Around Them

The local boys did it at the Royal Athletic Park yesterday. They not only took the renowned Bremerton Navy Yard to camp and beat them, but fourteen to one was the tune. The returned soldier-all stars proved too good for every department for the United States visitors. The Victoria veterans had piled up thirteen runs before the Bremerton boys secured the only tally, which prevented a washout.

Carne and Bever proved an insolvable puzzle to the navy sluggers. Three safeties was the best they could do with either hurler. Palmer, on the mound for the visitors, was not able to put over anything that worried the home sluggers. They got twenty-three hits off him, Copas and Gravelin each getting four hits in five times. Gravelin got one home run with Cummings on second.

NO THOROUGHBREDS IF RACING BANNED
Breeding Would Be Killed If Sport Prohibited, Says Ross

Montreal, Sept. 25.—"If horse racing is to be entirely prohibited in Canada, it is my firm opinion that the breeding of thoroughbreds will be killed," said Commander J. K. L. Ross, owner of many famous race horses, in the course of evidence he gave this morning before Dr. Rutherford, who is investigating racing on behalf of the Dominion Government. Pressed to express his opinion as to the best form of breeding—bookmaking or pari-mutuels—Commander Ross replied that he thought pari-mutuels machines were better. "I would suggest," said Commander Ross, "that the racetrack owners be allowed to take certain percentage from the pari-mutuel machines; that the owners should be allowed a fair percentage on the money they have invested, and that the rest, the surplus, be given for the public benefit, for good roads and for the aid of farmers in breeding better horses, and that fair purses be given to horse owners to enable them to produce the best horses."

Counsel Raney, for the Social Service organization, insisted that Secretary Northey, of the Montreal Jockey Club, should produce the original balance sheet of the club. This Mr. Northey refused to do. He said, "and I am willing to show these original balance sheets to Dr. Rutherford for his benefit, but I most decidedly won't show them to you or make the thing public."

MAKES GOOD START AS MAT PROFESSIONAL

Nelson, Sept. 25.—Frank Lucia, a local amateur, who was breaking into professional wrestling for the first time, took the measure to-night of Billy Duke, who claimed to have at one time been the champion middle-weight wrestler of Saskatchewan. The first two seven-minute periods were a draw. Lucia threw Duke in the third period with a headlock in one minute and thirty-five seconds.

MINOR LEAGUE SERIES

San Francisco, Sept. 25.—The St. Paul baseball club, winner of the American Association pennant, is to meet the winner of the Pacific Coast League pennant, Vernon or Los Angeles—in the first series ever played between the pennant winners of these two leading minor leagues. Victoria Stickhandlers Will Show Home Fans Real Play

Have No Idea of Letting Salmonbellies Lower Their Colors at Royal Athletic Park To-morrow

Ready for their battle with the Salmonbellies at Royal Athletic Park to-morrow afternoon, the Foundation team, amateur lacrosse champions of the world, are not worrying over the outcome, although the players from the Fraser River town are coming over confident of winning, and will strive to the utmost endeavor to accomplish this. While a defeat would not affect the championship status of the boys who wear the green and white, the very idea of losing to any team in Canada is the thought farthest from their minds. They will fight as hard as they fought in the past to keep New Westminster from scoring, and will work their most spectacular stunts in getting the ball past the Westminster goalie.

Hailed by the Winnipeg press as the greatest aggregation of amateur stick-handlers ever got together in Canada, the Foundation team was the sensation of the tournament at the prairie capital, where the very best of Canada's lacrosse talent competed in the greatest gathering of amateur players in the history of our national game took place. The combination of the team, the swiftness of the passing, the almost impregnable defence, the irresistible onslaught of the home on the enemy's goal were the cause of glowing tributes.

On the occasion of the game with the Winnipeg All-Stars the Foundation team scored eight goals in six minutes, everybody working together with no attempt at individual playing. The ball would be faced off,

East and West Widely Apart on Issue of Re-instating Soldiers

After Solid Line-Up for Three Hours Western Representatives Lose in Fight for Returned Sportsmen

Ottawa, Sept. 26.—After discussion which began early in the afternoon and continued until late in the evening, the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, which is holding its annual meeting in Ottawa, decided last night against the proposed reinstatement of professional athletes who had served in the recent war.

The now famous slogan of the East, "Once a professional, always a professional," failed to melt before the eloquent oratory of a large delegation of Western representatives, and the motion that the whitewash brush should be used, letting back into the amateur ranks a number of well-known Canadian stars who have fought and probably bled for the Empire on far-away battlefields, was defeated, the vote standing 33 to 28.

This was the most important resolution discussed at the day's session. The annual meeting of the A. A. U. of Canada, which is being held for the first time since 1914, opened this morning at the Chateau Laurier with Thomas Boyd, of Winnipeg, president, in the chair. Delegates were present from every province in the Dominion.

It was evident, that while harmony prevailed on points of vital importance to the welfare of the Canadian amateurs, the east and west were widely apart on the proposed reinstatement of professionals.

The break, however, did not come until the afternoon, when M. G. McNeil, of Winnipeg, moved, seconded by John O'Hare, of Winnipeg, as follows:

"That any Canadian or Imperial returned soldier who has fought with the Allies in the great war, upon making personal application, and upon his declaring his intention to remain an amateur, receive his amateur card."

This precipitated the first lively discussion of the afternoon. Messrs. Leith, Nelson Law, Brent, Armstrong, Morrison, Betts, Bettachem, Mulqueen, Robinson, Calude McDonald and Colonel Johnston were among the speakers. The west lined up solidly against the east for three hours the atmosphere was charged with pleas for and against the western resolution.

The first resolution, introduced by Mr. McNeil and seconded by Mr. O'Hare, was then withdrawn, and another, practically the same in modified form, presented. This also provided for the reinstatement of professional soldiers, but specified that each provincial body should have charge of its respective case and that each reinstatement be subject, in the event of an inter-provincial dispute, to a final decision by the Canadian registration committee. It also stipulated that the applicant should promise to never again violate the amateur rules and added that no reinstatement should become effective unless given a two-thirds majority vote. Mr. Leith, who hails from British Columbia, championed his motion in brilliant style. Mr. Morrison gave him some able support and other western delegates likewise rallied to his assistance.

His motion was defeated 33 to 28.

Card Resembles a Northwest Pacific Championship Meet

The committee in charge of the International Boxing Tourney which is to be held to-morrow evening at the Crystal Theatre met yesterday and made final arrangements for what they consider the biggest and most representative Amateur Boxing Tournament which has been held in the Pacific Northwest since the beginning of the war. No expense has been spared in bringing star boxers from all over the Northwest with the result that the completed card resembles a Northwest Pacific Championship meet. Seattle is sending over the strongest team of boxers they could possibly muster together and they are reputed to be of the same calibre as Earl Baird and Eddie Pinkman who were products of the Seattle Athletic Club in the pre-war days. Vancouver will be represented by a team of three boxers who Trainer Jimmy Clark states will be worthy representatives of the city, who

SOCCER SEASON OPENS SATURDAY

Ten Clubs Will Be in Action
For First League Games

Opening games in the Victoria and District Soccer League will be played to-morrow with ten teams in action. Nearly every one of last season's stars is noticed, although many of them appear in different colors this season. Their ranks have been added to by some who formerly starred in the game, who have returned from overseas since the round ball game was last played.

The struggle for supremacy this year looks like being a record-breaker, and there will undoubtedly be good crowds out to get a line up on the strength of the clubs represented in the race.

The five games on the schedule are: Victoria Wests vs. Yarrrows, at Beacon Hill; Catholic Army Hut vs. Comrades, at Central Park; Foundation vs. North Wards, at Oak Bay; Army and Navy Veterans vs. Great War Veterans, at Work Point; Harbor Marines vs. Fragments, at Beacon Hill.

With a Flourish

The Army and Navy Veterans are starting their season with a flourish of trumpets. Players are requested to meet at the back of the Pemberton Building at 2:15 p.m. promptly. President G. A. Kirk will kick off, and a big attendance of supporters is requested in order to ensure the team a good reception.

W. Fillmore will captain the team for Saturday, the selection of regular captain will be made after the match.

SEATTLE AND VANCOUVER—WATCH US GROW

TO OUR PRINCE

All hail to "EDWARD" our gallant Prince, we're proud he journeyed here. We welcome him with glad acclaim, and greetings most sincere. We loyally lend him homage—it is our Prince's due. And joyously Victoria hangs out "RED, WHITE and BLUE."

He's heard the roar of British guns; the roar of Britain's Might. He's glad to grip a Canuck's hand, he's seen Canadiana fight. And we are proud to meet our Prince—please God, our future King. As he has Royally won our hearts, his hand we'd loyally wring.

And "ROCKSIDE" too, will be an feat, the "UNION JACK" will fly. And only "dainty necks be stretched" when "PRINCE EDWARD" passes by. For "RYLANDS" says our Loyalty, is that which never fails. We honor "GEORGE" our Noble King, and LOVE our "PRINCE OF WALES."

DOMINION

Some of the finest riding ever seen in a film is to be found in William S. Hart's new, Artcraft picture, "Square Deal Sanderson," pictured by Lambert Hillyer from the story by Chas. Alden Seltzer, which is attracting capacity audiences at every showing at the Dominion Theatre this week. Mr. Hart presents one of the finest portrayals of his screen career, and his support, headed by Ann Little, is eminently satisfactory.

COLUMBIA

Kitty Gordon, the famous and immensely popular star, was presented on the Romano screen yesterday, beginning a three-day showing, in a new World Picture, bearing the title of "The Scar." This is a highly emotional drama, and is one of the very best vehicles in which Miss Gordon has been seen. Supporting Miss Gordon in this production is a superior cast, including such notables as Irving Cummings, Eric Mayne, Frank Farrington and other.
"The Scar" presents Miss Gordon in the role of Cora, a Spanish adventurer. She is ecstatically beautiful, but is calculating and relentless. Several men come into her clutch, and she breaks them all.

This production has been lavishly staged and as is always the case in a Kitty Gordon picture, the star wears a large number of the very latest and most stylish gowns. "The Scar" is a memorable picture.

VARIETY

Mae Murray, the Universal Star, has proved herself capable of handling other roles than those of dancing girls. Although Miss Murray first danced her way to fame on the boards of Broadway and later enhanced her success by a contract with the Polka company, the star of "The Big Little Person," shown yesterday at the Variety displayed convincingly that her following has not been attracted merely through her power to dance. In this picture Miss Murray indicates in a refreshing manner her ability to handle a part requiring a sympathetic understanding. In the character of Arathes Manning, the tender-hearted little school teacher whose deafness caused by an epidemic, cuts her off from the world of childish voices and laughter. Miss Murray took advantage of the excellent opportunities afforded by the picture to acquire new admirers—persons who will now give proper consideration to Mae Murray, artist, instead of Mae Murray, danseuse.

ROMANO

"Blackie's Redemption," the grippling story of a reformed crook, in which Bert Lytell enacted the leading role, was the attraction yesterday at the Columbia and played to a large and appreciative audience.
The plot shows how Blackie, tired of his lawless life, tries to reform, but is prevented by the underhand "frame-up" of Fred the Court, which sends him to prison. How he escapes and returns to Mary, the girl whom he was about to marry when he was arrested, is one of the vivid and gripping series of incidents which go to make a production of unusual strength and appeal.

The climax and big surprise of the play comes when the warden, who finds Blackie in Mary's house, decides that she is more entitled to the man she loves than the law is,
and leaves them to their interrupted happiness.

PRINCESS

It may be found necessary to continue the present run of "Oh Jupiter." Mr. R. N. Hineks' new and original musical comedy into Monday, if not Tuesday of next week.
This, however, has not been definitely decided upon, and in consequence intending patrons who wish to make certain of witnessing this very popular attraction should make early application for seats for tonight's and to-morrow's performances, as capacity houses are assured. The production is now going with a flying and a precision that makes the entertainment a most enjoyable one. There is no doubt but that "Oh Jupiter" will for long be remembered as one of the brightest and breeziest productions that The Princess Dramatic Society have ever offered for the public's amusement and entertainment.

PANTAGES

Who doesn't know the pesky mosquito? As you sit on your favorite front porch after the day's work he comes and disturbs your otherwise untrammelled repose. Then when you endeavor to "pound the ear" for forty or fifty winks between times, he lights on the end of your breathing apparatus and zowie! you know he's there. There isn't much comedy to the pesky things, but Shaw and Bernard, two talkative dudes, who occupy a prominent position on the current Pantages bill, have a scheme to rid the country of the winged stingers that is the acme of comedy. They intend to form a trust, so you are informed when they come out on the stage, and sell shares at 10c the share. Then they will corner the mosquito market and sell at a good figure, making each investor a neat profit. Sounds interesting, doesn't it?

The children of the neighborhood were greatly interested by the news of the arrival of a baby at the New-comes. One of them, meeting little Jonathan Newcome carrying some milk very carefully, asked:
"What is your new brother's name?"
"They haven't found out yet," replied Jonathan. "He can't talk!"

ORPHEUM BILL

STARRING SOLOIST

Dutch Virtuoso Appears This Week-end With Rasch
Dancers

The average vaudeville's audience if there is an average one—goes to be entertained, amused, brightened up. They expect something sparkling, effervescent, youthful. And, of course, they get it. To-day's Orpheum bill at the Royal Victoria tonight and Saturday with a Saturday matinee, is this kind of a show.

The one item which stands head and shoulders above everything else on the bill is the exquisite violin solo of Louis Wolff, a Dutch virtuoso with the Rasch dancers. As one watches the emotion play over the lined features of this veteran fiddler, the spotlight shedding its pitiless glare on his greying hair—the realization that music is a mistress that never grows old, never stales, that inspires a deeper glamor as years pass in her service, steals over the breathless, listening audience. It is a distinct contrast to the youth, the vivacity, the light whirling limbs of the dancers he accompanied. And his sincere artistry is immensely satisfying.

"Sweeties" succeeds in spite of its saccharine title. It is one of the snappiest musical sketches the Orpheum has shown for some time, well constructed, cleverly performed, and possessed of some very bright lines.
The five performers are almost equally good; James Macue making the most of his "fat" part as the "Blue Devil," especially in the extremely effective monologue about his beloved France.

Kharum, the pianist is awarded the biggest "hand" that any single act has earned so far this season.
Harry Norwood has a most unusual infectious smile—quite strange to the boards of two-day. Among other smart things, he and his partner, Alpha Hall, spring the ancient one about "We should worry—I'll and you a quitty." The old one continues to get the biggest laughs.

Comfort and King will offer their amusing satire of the southern court house called "Coontown Divorcement." As well as clever comedians, they are exceptionally good singers.
Going home with a lamp-post over your shoulder is one of the exploits which are already taking their place in ancient history; and the Melnotte Duo in the "drunk" opening to their excellent slack wire act revive a lot of memories. Their unexpected finish heralded in advance by our friend, Jimmie J. Morton, will perform his

RECITAL NEXT WEEK

Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green to Be Assisted by Accomplished Violinist

Much interest is being manifested by Victoria musical circles in the farewell piano recital to be given at the Royal Victoria theatre on October 2 by Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green, who is leaving for New York to start on a professional career under the auspices of Leopold Godowsky, the Russian pianist. The recital here is under the Ladies' Musical Club.

Appearing with Mrs. Green in the recital will be Miss Mary Isard, an English violinist. She will use a genuine Amati violin which belongs to Mrs. R. B. Bennett of the Ladies' Musical Club. Mrs. Bennett bought the instrument some years ago from Hawden Briggs, a pupil of Joachim, and himself a member of the Bor-sky Quartette. Mrs. Bennett used this instrument while she was a student.

It was not known at the time she purchased it that it was a genuine Amati. This was not discovered until later experts pronounced it to be such.
It bears the stamp of Girolamo, 1556-1630, one of the two sons of Andrea Amati, founder of the Cremona School of violin making. It is estimated to be three hundred years old.

Lesson in Scientific Complexion Renewing

Everyone has a beautiful skin underneath the one exposed to view. Bear that in mind and it will be easier to understand the correct principle in acquiring a lovely complexion. Nature is constantly shedding the top skin in flaky particles like dandruff, only much smaller in size. In abnormal conditions, or in advancing age, these particles are not shed as rapidly as in robust youth.
The longer they remain the more soiled or faded they become—that's the immediate cause of a "bad complexion."
It has been discovered that ordinary mercurized wax, to be had at any drug store, will absorb these worn-out particles. The absorption, while hastening Nature's work, goes on gradually enough to cause no inconvenience. In a week or two the transformation is complete.
The fresh, healthy, youthful under-skin is then wholly in evidence. You who are not satisfied with your complexion should get an ounce of mer-curized wax and try this treatment.
Use the wax nightly, like cold cream, washing it off mornings.

FLORA OF THE LINE

An Amateur Botanist on the Railway

By Ashley Sterne in The London Daily Chronicle

For several years I have been an ardent collector of native wild flowers (without any claim whatsoever to being a botanist), and have undertaken many journeys, some of considerable length, to search for particular specimens.

But I doubt whether any journey afforded me so much interest and pleasure as a ramble I recently enjoyed within ten minutes' train journey of the city, with the clang of the trams and the hooting of the ships in the river for ever in my ears, the smoke of factories and works in my nostrils, the dirty backyards of slummy dwellings always visible to my eyes, and one of London's most densely crowded arteries within a few minutes' walk.

Nearly Eighty Specimens.

Without any pretence to a thorough examination, or to covering all the ground that may permit authorized me to explore, I have, nevertheless, managed to compile a list of between seventy and eighty different wild flowers in bloom within two or three miles of a big terminus—this without reckoning several varieties of hawkweed and um-belliferous plants, which, with my very limited knowledge of botany, it would take me too long positively to identify.

I found, for instance, a patch of the beautiful rose-hay willow herb growing by a slag heap. I was as delighted to encounter them there as I should be to find the fritillary, or Grass of Parnassus, growing wild in Fleet-street. I found, too, many large patches of the sweetly-smelling (and sweetly-named) meadow while the purple-tufted vetch, the toad flax, and the meadow vetchling were also growing profusely.

Ragwort (which, in spite of its shabby name, can look very imposing), agrimony, and knapweed were likewise abundant. I also found two specimens of the dwarf snapweed, Red campion, bladder campion, and white lychnis were fairly numerous, while occasionally I came across rest-harrow and wood-spurge. A long stretch of track was bordered by bitting stonecrop (not now, of course, in flower) and an abundance of wall lettuce and hop trefoil.

An Iris by the Drain.

I located two specimens of the yellow iris, which, from the window of the railway carriage, I had observed to be in flower in the spring.
One flourished near an easing railway arch, the other beside a small gully that had been cut for draining purposes.

I found solitary specimens of the fuller's teal and wild mignonette; also a lonely snap-dragon which was obviously an "escape." The humble and insignificant shepherd's purse and the dainty herb robert, generally so common, were, curiously enough, not to be seen.

The remainder of my "bag" consisted for the most part of flowers which it would be hard to avoid finding anywhere where there is soil, e.g., convolvulus, bind-weed, charlock, hedge-mustard, yarrow, creeping cinquefoil, white and red dead nettle, birds-foot trefoil, woody nightshade, enchanter's nightshade, hedge stachys, self-heal, poppy, persicalia, white bryony, nippewort and broad-leaved willow-herb, to mention but a few.

But, though common, my pleasure in collecting them was in no measure diminished. Besides, as I was travelling practically unexplored ground, I always bore in mind that Fats might perhaps lead me to a Cheddar pink, a pheasant's-eye, or one of the rarer orchids the whereabouts of which are so carefully concealed by those who have been fortunate enough to locate them.

Mistress—"So your brother has got a job as artist on a newspaper?" Maid—"Yes; he draws the crosses on the pictures to show where the crime was committed."

The Man Who Banished Corns

Blue-jay was invented by a scientist of distinction.
By a man whose lifetime has been spent in the study of surgical dressings.

This is a master's method—correct, complete and efficient. And the millions of people who know it, never think of enduring a corn.

All in One

The first step is to stop the pain. This is done by removing all pressure—by the soft protecting ring marked A.

The next step is to gently cause the corn to disappear.

This is done by the remarkable B & B Wax, which no corn can resist.

This bit of wax—marked
B—is centered on the corn.
It cannot spread. So, unlike old-time methods, it acts on the corn alone.

C is rubber-coated adhesive. This snugly wraps the application, protecting everything.

You apply this Blue-jay in a jiffy. The corn pain stops at once. The wrapping is comfortable and you forget it.

In two days you remove it and the corn can be lifted out. Only rare corns need a second application.

This is the scientific way, the easy, sure and right way to end corns. You will never return to any wrong method when you try a Blue-jay once.

Try it tonight!

ENORMOUS SHARK IS LANDED AT ESQUIMALT

Boys From Military Hospital Landed Finny Monster Sunday

Patients of Esquimalt hospital report the landing of a full sized shark caught at the entrance to Esquimalt Harbor Sunday. The fish was first hooked by one of the patients who was out in a row boat fishing for cod with an ordinary cod hook.

Other patients who were around the landing stage noticing something unusual happening immediately set out in the Red Cross launch to render assistance and the party succeeded in getting the big fish securely hooked and entangled in the line. In this manner they towed it to the landing stages and then with the assistance of ropes after a desperate struggle made the landing.

MAINLAND PATIENTS COME TO ESQUIMALT

Forty-five patients from Shaughnessy Hospital, Vancouver were transferred to Esquimalt Hospital Thursday, their transfer being precipitated by the fire which occurred at the Mainland hospital this week. The strength of the hospital was also considerably added to Friday by 30 wounded veterans who returned to Canada on the hospital ship Araguaya, made up of seven officers and 23 other ranks. Men from Qualicum hospital, which it is rumored is soon to be closed, are also being sent to Esquimalt.

ESQUIMALT PEOPLE GREETED THE PRINCE

Enthusiastic Scene as Royal Visitor Made Trip to District

Esquimalt citizens made a loyal display of decorations during the visit of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to Victoria, and especially on the occasions of the visit of the Royal visitor to the Sailors' Club and Esquimalt Military Hospital was the municipality in festive mood. There were few houses that had not a flag flying from the window at least, and in several instances a great lead of time and money had been spent in making a display worthy of the occasion.

As the Royal party passed along Esquimalt Road crowds turned out to greet them and the Prince was heartily cheered on his way to the Sailors' Club. A crowd collected at the top of Admirals Road to make sure of catching a glimpse of the Prince either as he entered the club or left for the hospital and cheered him lustily on both occasions. He acknowledged their loyalty with a winning smile and a wave of the hand.

The Lampsen Street School pupils were all out to greet the Prince, and as the car passed them, lined up on Esquimalt Road, he ordered that it should be slowed up and smilingly acknowledged the enthusiastic greetings extended to him.

A table with the visitors book was brought outside of the Sailors Club, Esquimalt, and a section had been roped off for the royal party. As soon as the auto arrived a cry went up "the rope is cut" and the crowd surged around the royal visitor. Mrs. Ranna was presented to His Royal Highness. One enthusiastic old lady pushed her way to the Prince as he was signing his name on the visitor book and slapped him on the back exclaiming "God bless you, my boy, I knew your great grandmother," and then broke down and cried. The Prince gave the woman a friendly pat and a shake of the hand.

Another considerate action of a similar nature which was being talked of by the residents of Esquimalt occurred on Admirals Road. Mrs. Dodds, a widow of eighty-six years of age, who came around the Horn with her husband sixty years ago, and whose husband was for thirty-one years employed at the Navy Yard, was sitting in a chair outside her house to see the Prince as he passed. At the age of eighty-six the old lady had her leg amputated and was unable to join the crowd out to see the royal visitor. As the car passed the Prince stood upright, and raised his hat to the widow.

During the day His Royal Highness made a hurried visit to the Navy Yard and at Yarrow's plant.

Lucy was visiting her aunt in the country. It was the joy of the four-year-old to hunt for eggs in the barn. One day she brought in a very small one, presumably laid by a bantam.

"Auntie," said the little maid, showing it, "the hen that laid this egg didn't have the right recipe."

BANKS WISH TO OPEN ESQUIMALT BRANCHES

Building and Business Boom in Municipality Attracts Financial Interest

Banks are looking for sites for the establishment of branches at Esquimalt because of the business and building boom there brought about partly through the announcement of the building of the new drydock there.

The Canadian Bank of Commerce has already taken the southeast corner of Admirals and Esquimalt Roads, and will open a modern bank branch there.

The Bank of Montreal, it is reported to-day, has purchased the corner of Constance Avenue and Esquimalt Road for larger premises which are necessary as a result of the increasing volume of business.

At least one other bank is known to be seeking a location in the vicinity because of the prospects of big business in the near future. Esquimalt business men consider activity on the part of the great Canadian banks to get located early at Esquimalt a certain indication of the future prosperity of the district.

There is not a single house available for rent in Esquimalt at the present time, and business in the municipality is reported to be brisker than it has been in years. Several important sales of real estate are reported and inhabitants point to the drydock as the means of bringing the boom which they predict has already started.

FIRST MATRON OF ESQUIMALT HOSPITAL IS BACK IN VICTORIA

Mrs. E. B. Hussey, who was the first matron at Esquimalt Hospital when it was taken over by the Military Hospital Commission Command to take care of the veterans as they returned home, is back in Victoria. Mrs. Hussey gave up her duties as matron to proceed overseas, accompanied by several of her staff of nurses. She won the French Medal of Honor, and the Medal of Gratitude while serving in France. Mrs. Hussey, who returned to the coast about three weeks ago, has been spending part of her time in Vancouver, but returned to Victoria this week.

PROTEST TRANSFER.

Vancouver, Sept. 25.—Vigorous protesting against the action of the military authorities in the matter, J. J. Banfield drew the attention of the other members of the hospital board at its meeting Thursday night to the fact that Vancouver soldier patients in the military annex had been moved to the Esquimalt Hospital. Following the fire at the Shaughnessy hospital the patients there had been removed to the military annex and on Wednesday fifty-four of them were taken down to Victoria.

Mr. Banfield said that the authorities had not given the matter the consideration it should have received. There were a number of Vancouver men who had been taken down to Victoria and away from their own friends and relatives.

BRITAIN'S "BIG 148."

That there are 148 people in this country whose incomes exceed £100,000 a year is the remarkable fact revealed by a report of the Inland Revenue.

The total income of the "big 148" is £27,600,000. While enjoying an income, however, which works out at an average of over £2,500 a week, each of Britain's wealthiest citizens has to contribute, for the privilege of the distinction, a big share towards the cost of the country. Of the total income mentioned, it is estimated that, approximately, £13,352,000, or nearly one-half, will be cast into the Treasury in income tax and super tax.

Altogether, 3,406,000 people in this country pay income tax amounting to £272,815,000, or over £28 per head. The total taxable income is estimated at £1,970,000,000, producing income tax and super tax totalling £235,300,000. Of this sum £109,124,000 comes from taxpayers with incomes of less than £2,500 a year, while £126,176,000 is derived from the larger incomes. The net produce of the income tax, after the super tax, is £236,000,000.—Tit-Bits.

ALL HE ASKED.

They were standing outside the front door having a final chat after his evening call.

He was leaning against the doorpost, talking in low, dulcet tones. She was listening and gazing up rapturously into his eyes. Suddenly she turned round. The door had opened, and there, just inside, stood her father, clad in a dressing-gown.

"My dear father," she asked, "what is the matter?"

Her dear father ignored her question.

"John," he said, addressing the young man, "you know I've never complained about your staying late, and I'm not going to complain now; but, for goodness sake, stop leaning against the bell-push. Other people want some sleep, even if you don't."

Reach Port

Two Japanese liners—the Africa Maru, of the O. S. K. fleet, and the Kashima Maru, of the N. Y. K. line, reached port to-day from the Orient.

Impeded by fog off the Straits, the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Africa Maru, expected in port at an early hour to-day from the Orient, did not reach her berth at the Outer Docks until after the noon hour.

Mlle. Yvonne Letestu Principal
Ceremony

Mlle. Yvonne Letestu, daughter of Captain G. Letestu, representative of the deck department of the French High Commission, will sponsor the Montreal when that vessel goes aloft from the Point Hope yard of the Foundation Company on Tuesday next. The launching hour has been set for 4.30 p. m.

Hull 215, as the Montreal is officially known, is the last of ten 3,000-ton wooden steamships to be turned out by the Point Hope yard under the contract for twenty vessels of her type placed with the company by the French Government.

Nine other vessels have been launched from the Point Hope yard, and the last, the Nouvelle Ecosse is scheduled to slide down the ways October 10.

The next vessel to undergo her trials will be the Montmagny, which is due to be tested out on Monday. The Montmagny will be the twelfth ship to be completed.

The wooden steamer Ontario, one of the locally-built fleet, sailed from Vancouver on Wednesday night with 1,430,000 feet of lumber on her maiden voyage to Europe.

Since the C. Gardner Johnson agency took charge of the loading of the French wooden ships carrying lumber from British Columbia ports, the firm has dispatched sixteen of the forty vessels, carrying an estimated total of 14,500,000 feet of lumber.

Gardner, Johnson & Co. are loading the twenty 3,000-ton Foundation-built ships, and also the twenty 1,500-ton ships built on the mainland.

ADMIRAL LINE TO INCREASE FREIGHTS

Steamship Company Claims That Expense of Operation
Eats Up Profits

Seattle, Sept. 26.—Declaring that an analysis of the earnings of the company for the seven months ended July 31, 1919, show a loss of $166,463.29, officers of the Pacific Steamship Company, the Admiral Line, announce that they will be compelled to advance freight rates between Seattle and ports in California and between Seattle and ports in South-eastern and Southwestern Alaska in the near future. It is said that the increase will amount to a little less than $1.00 a ton.

The company applied to the California State Railroad Commission for an order authorizing an increase in freight rates between San Francisco and Los Angeles, San Diego, Eureka and other ports in California. Officers of the company said that further increases in operating expenses, effective August 1, 1919, would double the loss claimed for the first seven months of this year. The increase in rates asked for in California also amounts to a little less than $1.00 a ton.

Cause of Losses

The losses in revenue are attributable chiefly to increased operating expenses due to higher prices for fuel oil, advances in longshore wages and the wages of officers and members of the crews of the company's vessels, the greater cost of insurance and other factors entering into the operation of the line, say officers of the Pacific Steamship Company.

Authority to increase its loading charges in San Francisco is also asked of the California State Railroad Commission by the company, the claim being advanced that wage increases paid to stevedores make necessary a change in the line's schedule of charges for handling cargo.

First sailing of the Pacific Steamship Company from Seattle for California since the longshoremen's strike in San Francisco began, the steamship President, with 400 passengers aboard, left Pier D Wednesday night. The vessel has shipments for Los Angeles, but none for San Francisco. The departure of the steamship Admiral Schley from Seattle for California September 16 was the company's last sailing previous to the departure of the President for the south.

FOOD SUPPLY FOR LONDON ARRANGED

Scheme For Feeding Great City during Railway Strike Devised

Workers on All Railways, Whether Steam or Electric, to Strike

London, Sept. 26.—It was announced this afternoon that all arrangements had been made for the conveyance of foodstuffs to London during the railway strike, which has been called to begin to-night at midnight. Loyal railway workers will be afforded protection by the authorities, and the maintenance of essential services also has been provided for.

The strike will apply to all railways, whether steam or electric, it is declared in an official statement by the railwaymen.

The workers on the London subways have not yet made known what their attitude will be, although it is thought probable they also will strike. It is considered likely, too, that some of the motor bus lines will be affected.

The official announcement from Downing Street on the breakdown of the negotiations between the Government and the railwaymen read:—"The conference failed to arrive at an agreement and a strike will take place to-night."

Ernest Efforts.

All the Cabinet Ministers worked at full pressure in an endeavor to prevent what was recognized as promising to be the most momentous strike that has ever occurred on the British railways. Likewise, before the break took place James Henry Thomas the railwaymen's leader, declared in answer to an inquiry: "God knows I am trying hard to bring about a settlement."

Immediately after the breach Mr. Thomas began a consultation with his colleagues of the National Union of Railwaymen.

Inquiries at the headquarters of the big Transport Workers' Federation elicited no statement as to what action the organization might take in the situation.

No Common Ground.

At no single point at any stage of the negotiations was there common ground between the railroad men and the Government, according to an official. The Government made a new offer and at the same time undertook to consider any anomalies in the scheme for wage standardization. This, however, was conditionally rejected by the railwaymen's representatives.

In an interview Mr. Thomas said that no effort had been spared by the executive of his organization or by himself to find a way to avert the crisis, but that the Prime Minister had found it impossible to agree upon the standardization of wages for all grades of employees on the same basis as that already agreed upon in the case of the locomotive men.

Therefore the committee felt there was no alternative but to call a strike.

No Rioting.

"I hope, however," Mr. Thomas said, "that the members of our union realize that neither disorder nor rioting will help their cause. Damage to property will not be countenanced."

"To me," he added, "this is the saddest day of my life."

It is understood that the Cabinet this afternoon has under consideration a plan to confer extensive powers upon the Food Minister in connection with the distribution of food by transport over the highways during the strike.

An Offer.

According to The Evening Standard, the Government during the conference with the union leaders made an offer for the continuation of the present wages throughout this year and into next year until the cost of food, now reckoned at 115 per cent. above the pre-war scale, had fallen to 110 per cent. above the pre-war level and remained there or below that point for not less than three months. Owing to the uncompromising attitude of the men, however, The Standard adds, an agreement was found to be impossible.

When asked this evening whether the door was absolutely closed against a renewal of negotiations, Sir Robert Stevenson Horn, Minister of Labor, replied:

"The men's reply shows no indication of a loophole anywhere and as far as I can see the door is shut in our faces."

A Real Fight.

London, Sept. 26.—The Associated Press has learned authoritatively that the Government takes the view that the railroad strike called for midnight to-night must be fought with every facility at its command, even to the employment of armed forces if necessary. The War Office announced that it would be necessary to suspend demobilization of the army and cancel all leaves of absence forthwith.

The Government looks on the strike as a threat against the life of the community. While it does not propose to take over and operate the railways, the Government asserts it will protect any men volunteering for railway service.

PRINCE TASTES SOME LOCAL STRAWBERRIES

Luscious Fruits, Ripening in September, Presented to Future King

After his stay on the Island, the Prince of Wales will carry away many pleasant memories of Victoria and its environs. Among these, and by no means least, he will remember for a long time the big, luscious strawberries which, grown at the outskirts of Victoria, were presented to him yesterday by Harold Woods. Mr. Woods at his cultivated land on Cedar Hill Road has nearly two acres of ever-bearing strawberries, as well as a farm at Gordon Head. Two crates of the late berries—unusually enormous and juicy fruits—were carefully selected and brought to town. One crate was sent to Government House for the Prince's dinner last night, while the other was put aboard the train which bore the Royal visitor up the Island to-day.

This variety of strawberries was introduced by W. W. Suttie, who owns and operates a small holding on Cedar Hill Road, where the Skinner system of overhead irrigation is used.

WILL MEET BEATTY ON BRIDGE QUESTION

Civic Authorities, Dissatisfied With Delay, Will Interview C.P.R. President

It is the intention of the civic authorities to resume the Johnson Street negotiations, which have been deferred for some two months now, when E. W. Beatty, President of the C. P. R., and D. C. Coleman, vice-president, arrive in Victoria early in October.

In making this announcement this morning, Mayor Porter expressed considerable dissatisfaction over the delay in the bridge question, and complained that he could get no definite answer from the Railway Company. The question in dispute, he pointed out, was whether any other railway than the C. P. R. should be allowed to bring freight cars across the proposed new Johnson Street bridge. The Mayor asked the railway officials by telegram sometime ago for a definite answer on this matter, but he has received no reply. The Railway Company takes the ground that only its cars should be allowed on the bridge, while the city is not willing to grant this exclusive privilege for all time to come. A deadlock has resulted.

Another interesting turn to the Johnson Street bridge problem is the establishment by the C. N. R. of a diamond in Saanich so that it is now possible for C. N. R. cars to be brought into the heart of the city over the B. C. Electric Interurban line. In this way, the C. N. R. has achieved the same advantages it would have secured had it been able to cross over the new Johnson Street bridge. The grade of the C. N. R. line makes it impossible for it to cross the proposed viaduct, but by its arrangement with the B. C. Electric Company it will be able readily to secure freight from the dealers in the city.

A MURDER TRIAL AT KINGSTON, ONT.

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 26.—The evidence at the trial here of James Hartwick, charged with the murder of his stepson last February near Parham, took a sensational turn yesterday afternoon when the widow testified that the prisoner had forced her into improper relations with him.

After her husband had been killed she repeatedly asked Hartwick if they were doing anything to find who committed the crime and he told her that they were putting her in for it. On learning this, she said she was going to kill herself. The prisoner then wrote a letter, of which he showed her a copy and which she said she must have on her person when she died. In the letter, which was partly illegible, the witness was made to say that she intended to die and to name a certain man as having wronged her and come between her and her husband.

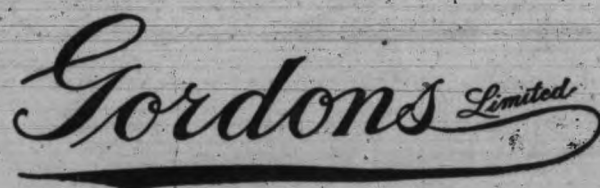

She said in her evidence that Hartwick gave her a bottle of carbolic acid to kill herself with. Witness said that after she had written the letter the prisoner made her burn the copy. She said she was forced to write the letter in order to be permitted to go to her home.

TWO POLL CLERKS IN ONTARIO BOOTHS

Toronto, Sept. 26.—Allan Simond, chief election officer of the province, has denied the report that there will be two ballot boxes at the larger polls for the coming election throughout Ontario. He said there would be but one ballot box for both electoral and liquor referendum ballots and one list. There would be, however, two poll clerks, he said.

Dr. Caroline Brown, a member of the Toronto Board of Education for several years, will be a candidate for the Legislature in Northwest Toronto in opposition either to Hon. Thomas Crawford or Hon. W. D. McPherson, Provincial Secretary. It is a double constituency.
